Butler Predicts President May Quit Before '60 Convention

Washington (AP)—Paul M. Butler, Democratic national chairman, said Monday night there are indications President Eisenhower now feels the burdens of office are too great for him to serve out his second term.

Butler predicted Eisenhower may resign in advance of the GOP presidential nominating convention in 1960.

'Nonsense'

Washington (AP)—"Undiluted nonsense," said Meade Alcorn, Republican national chairman.

Alcorn replied in a statement issued by his headquarters.

"Only the other day President Eisenhower was asked in his press conference if he intended to resign, and he answered in a characteristically forthright and unqualified manner," Alcorn said.

"The nation, therefore, is confronted with the necessity of choosing between the President's unqualified denial and Mr. Butler's ridiculous speculation."

2 Million Is Stolen; Man Held

... Ontario Burglary

Brockville, Ont. (AP)—Safe-crackers cut their way into a Brockville Trust Company vault over the weekend and escaped with about 2 1/4 million dollars in bonds, checks and cash. Late Monday a man was arrested in Montreal and 2 suitcases believed to contain most of the loot were recovered.

The burglary was one of the biggest in Canada's history.

An official of the Brockville Trust and Savings Co. said the theft included $2,225,000 in negotiable but clearly identifiable bonds and $15,000 in cash and checks. Also taken was an undetermined amount of non-negotiable registered bonds.

Police said a bank book found in the debris left at the cracked vault led to the arrest of a man in Montreal. He was identified by Brockville Police Sgt. Les Sterritt as Rene Martin, 31, of Montreal.

Key Found

Sterritt said a key found in the man's car led to a railway station locker that contained the 2 suitcases.

Securities officials were en route from Brockville to Montreal to check the contents of the suitcases.

In Montreal, Detective Lt. Leslie Hobbs said "we haven't tried to count it."

"That would take an accountant," he added, "we must have a tremendous amount of value here."

Police said they believed at least 3 persons, one of them a woman, pulled the safe job. Brockville Police Chief W. F. Young said the thieves entered the trust company by cutting a hole in the ceiling from a real estate office above.

More Pleasant Weather Seen

More temperatures just like the temperatures that made Monday a pleasant day—that's the picture for Tuesday.

Fair to partly cloudy skies will reign with a few scattered thundershowers in the west Tuesday evening, forecasters said.

Highs will range from 72 to 82.

A lone wolf thundershower dumped a brief rain and a little hail at Schuyler Monday afternoon and then produced a shower at Lincoln.

Highest temperature in the state Monday was 77 at Grand Island. The lowest was 38 at North Platte. Lincoln had a 69-44 temperature span.

22 Jurors Excused First Day's Questioning

Counsel Enters Insanity Plea For Starkweather

... Testimony In Mass Killing May Begin Wednesday

By Del Harding

Fifty-six prospective jurors were examined Monday by Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele as the murder trial of mass killer Charles Starkweather opened in Lancaster District Court.

Of the 56 called to the jury box, 22 were excused by Judge Harry A. Spencer for cause: either for having a firm conviction as to the 19-year-old redhead's guilt or for being opposed to capital punishment. Scheele finished his questioning of the prospective jurors and the 34 remaining on the panel will be examined Tuesday by defense attorneys T. Clement Gaughan and William F. Matschullat.

Gaughan estimated it will be sometime Wednesday before he finishes questioning the 20 men and 14 women. Replacements for any of these persons who are excused for cause during the defense examination will then be examined for cause by Scheele.

Finally, after 34 prospective jurors have been passed for cause by both the defense and prosecution, the peremptory challenges (12 by the defense and 10 by the prosecution) will be made. These challenges are made arbitrarily by both sides and no reason need be given for excusing a juror.

Prosecution First

When a panel of 12 jurors has been selected the prosecution will begin its attempt to prove Starkweather guilty of first degree murder and murder while in the perpetration of a robbery in the death of 17-year-old Robert Jensen of Bennet. Testimony is not expected to begin until late Wednesday afternoon or Thursday.

As expected, a plea of "innocent by reason of insanity" was entered for Starkweather before the examination of prospective jurors began. Matschullat entered the plea as Starkweather stood silently at his side.

Starkweather and his family are reportedly opposed to basing the youth's defense on the insanity contention, but Starkweather himself gave no indication of this when the plea was entered. His mother, Mrs. Guy Starkweather of 3025 N. 24th, sat at the counsel table with her son until mid-afternoon when she left.

Dapper In Tan Suit

Starkweather appeared dapper in a tan suit, white shirt, brown figured tie and dark brown shoes. The suit was issued to him for use at the trial by the State Penitentiary—he has gained about 15 pounds during his 3-month prison stay since his capture and has outgrown all his own clothing.

The flame-haired former garbage hauler listened intently to Scheele's questioning most of the day but appeared to tire toward the end of the afternoon. He chewed gum briskly and occasionally strummed his fingers on the counsel table.

Co. Sheriff Merle Karnopp and his chief deputy, Les Hasson, sat behind Starkweather.

14 Women, 20 Men On Juror Panel

Thirty-four persons, 14 women and 20 men, remained on the jury panel Monday after Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele finished examining prospective jurors for cause in the opening day of the Charles Starkweather murder case.

Many of these 34, however, could be excused for cause after questioning by the defense attorneys. The 34 persons were:

Ronald D. Haskins, 4115 South. Mrs. George McDonald Jr., Rt. 6. Mrs. Bernice E. Fagerberg, 3401 Pawnee. Mrs. Bernice J. Volkmer, 7126 Thurston. Anders H. Halberg, 5716 Madison. ## Starkweather Attitude: Interested Bystander

By Nancy Benjamin

Charles Starkweather went on trial for his life Monday with the attitude of an interested bystander.

Dressed casually in a light tan suit, white shirt and figured tie, Starkweather started his first day in court unsmiling, head lowered, but cheered up after preliminaries of choosing a panel of jurors proceeded.

Seated with him, and more attentive to his moves than to the court proceedings, was his mother, Helen Starkweather, who like her son looked pale against the tanned faces of surrounding law officers and attorneys.

The key figure in the court drew the attention of most of the prospective jurors who, when called to take seats in the front of the courtroom for questioning, almost immediately glanced at the red-headed youth or stared at him fixedly.

Question Ignored

Again and again County Attorney Elmer Scheele put the question to the jurors, "Would you, if you believed this man guilty, be willing to impose a death penalty?" Charles Starkweather seemed either to ignore the meaning of this query or to be oblivious to Scheele's questioning.

Confusion reigned in corridors outside Judge Harry Spencer's courtroom where in roped-off corridors newsmen and jurors competed for space with frantic photographers attempting to get an expressive shot of the youth in his short walk from the sheriff's office to the courtroom across the corridor.

Five frantic cameramen perched atop an upright piano bordering Charles Starkweather's route, but were disappointed when the youth ducked his head protectively behind one of the guards who dwarfed him by comparison.

Playful Side

A more playful side of Charles Starkweather could be seen by the curious through the open door of the sheriff's office. Chained by one wrist to Sheriff Merle Karnopp, he started tugging at the chain, then laughed and started swining the heavy chain like a child's jumping rope. Nobody joined him in his game.

Mrs. Starkweather explained that her husband's absence Monday was due to his work, and she expressed concern at leaving the rest of her family for the long trial period.

She smiled happily at the attorneys who pointed out that "now you can be close to Charles all day" and said she thought he looked fine, "although he hates that suit."

But as the newness of the juror's questioning wore off, officials and spectators relaxed and a low hum of conversation could be heard over the louder questioning by Scheele.

Stuffy Courtroom

Drawn venetian blinds and closed windows protected the proceedings from outside distractions but also caused an afternoon stuffiness which produced yawns and some grumbling from the audience of jurors waiting to be called.

The county attorney also relaxed his formal courtroom manner at times to joke with prospective jurors and evoke chuckles from the crowd.

Judge Spencer commented briefly that he was pleased with the group of prospective jurors, 147 of whom jammed the spectator rows at the beginning of the court session.

As the questioning and "challenge for cause" dismissals narrowed down the crowd, the remaining men and women showed by their facial expressions that they were mentally answering the queries themselves.

Only 2 of the prospective jurors questioned said they had not formed a prior opinion on the case, but a majority of the remaining ones admitted they could put aside their opinions to judge the case on the court evidence.

Hoover Praised

Hollywood (INS)—The President of the Screen Producers Guild praised FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover for lambasting films which glorify crime.

Samuel G. Engel said Hoover's criticism merited "high praise" and should serve as a warning signal to "a few unscrupulous individuals in the TV and motion picture industries who have made pictures glorifying violence, corruption and criminal activities."

Woman Kidnaper Dies, Hubby Jailed

... Kills Herself As Cops Close In

Idaho Springs, Colo. (AP)—A woman helped her husband kidnap an Idaho Springs marshal Monday. Then shot and killed herself as police closed in.

She was identified as Georgia Brian McKnight, 23, of Port Chester, N. Y., and her husband as David F. McKnight, 21, of Greenwich, Conn. McKnight was captured by highway patrolmen.

The 2 were sought in Amarillo, Tex., in the fatal beating of a pawnshop operator, Raymond B. Reed, 52. Officers said they also were wanted in connection with robberies at Kansas City, Mo., and Wichita, Kan., and for kidnaping in Los Angeles and Las Vegas, Nev.

The marshal, Charles Hull, 37, escaped unhurt.

Developments came rapidly after the McKnights stopped at a service station here, 40 miles west of Denver, and tried to sell a .25 caliber automatic to William Lee, 65, the station attendant.

Suspicious Lee called Ross Melton, the station owner, who in turn called Hull and advised him of the suspicious offer. The marshal intercepted the car and asked the occupants to come to the officer's vehicle.

Hull said the woman pulled a .38 caliber pistol. She and her husband forced Hull to accompany them. An alarm was spread as the McKnights drove off with Hull.

Hull said after the car tore through a road block, the woman pleaded with McKnight to stop. They pulled up at a service station east of here.

-Less Tension-

Summit Still Up In Air

Kremlin Hands New Notes To West

Moscow (AP)—Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko told the western Big 3 powers in notes Monday he will carry on pre-summit negotiations with their ambassadors and the exchange of opinion on some questions was not ruled out.

Tension in the preliminary exchanges may be easing. Diplomats who talked with the American, French and British Embassy reception Monday night—a few hours after the 3 met separately with Gromyko—said they noticed a distinct air of optimism.

It was the impression of these sources that the Gromyko note—and perhaps his conversation with the ambassadors—left open a way for a closer understanding on the barriers which thus far have thwarted the formal beginning of diplomatic talks.

Preparation

Gromyko's note left preparations for a summit conference up in the air. But in noting the agreement on preparation for a foreign ministers meeting through talks between himself and each of the ambassadors, the Foreign Minister said:

"The Soviet government, like the governments of the U.S.A., the U.K. (Britain) and France, considers that the acceptance of such procedure in no way predetermines the composition of the future foreign ministers meeting and a summit conference."

The western powers had rejected the Soviet proposal that representatives of Poland and Czechoslovakia sit in, to balance the Communists numerically with the westerners.

The avowed Soviet aim was to achieve East-West parity. Gromyko expressed his government's regret at the rejection, saying participation of the Poles and Czechs would undoubtedly help to produce positive results.

He said the delay so far is no fault of the Soviet side and that the Soviet government "now expects all the sides to exert the necessary efforts for the earliest accomplishment of this work."

Study Ordered On No Parking For 1-Way Streets

Sheridan Also Included In New Proposal

By Virgil Falloon

The City Council has asked for a report next Monday on a proposal to prohibit parking on the city's one-way streets and Sheridan Blvd.

Street Supt. Lynn Myers said "hit and miss" parking on these streets, especially 16th, interferes with cleaning the streets and snow removal.

The no parking restriction was proposed for all hours.

Capt. Willis Manchester, police traffic engineers, is to make a report on the proposal to the Council next Monday.

Waste Rules Asked

The street department has also asked for some strict legislation governing waste paper, paper cups and trays, napkins, and so forth at the various drive-ins and snack places in the city.

Myers said these places should be compelled to police the refuse during the day and not just at closing time.

His report cited at least 6 offenders. "The city should not be required to clean up the streets around these areas," he added.

To Attorney

Mayor Bennett Martin said the matter had been referred to the city attorney for drafting of an anti-litter ordinance for the Council's consideration.

In other action, the Council:

Approved Paving Contracts: Dobson Bros. Construction Co., $5,375.30, for Saylor between 55th and Normal Aids.

Abel Construction Co., $4,419, for 45th from Adams to Greenwood.

Ordinance, 1st Reading: Paving district on 73rd from Morton to Webster and Morton from 73rd to city limits.

Graveling district on Lillibridge from 54th to 55th.

Ordinance Passed on 3rd Reading: Paving District 1563 on Orchard from 66th to 67th.

Paving District 1564 on High from 35th to 37th.

Paving District 1565 on West Ave. La. from York La. to Lancaster La.

Amending topographical error in the new electrical ordinance.

Ordinance Given 1st and 2nd Reading: Proposed zoning change to highway commercial for a tract near 20th and Cornhuskerway.

All Council members were present for the 1 p.m. meeting and regular council session.

Ordinance Upping RR Speed Limit In City Readied

An ordinance increasing the city speed limits for trains is to be introduced next Monday before the City Council.

It would provide a limit of 35 miles per hour for passenger trains and 30 miles per hour for freight trains within the city limits.

The present 18-mile-an-hour limit has been attacked as archaic and unenforceable.

Atty. Miles W. Johnston, spokesman for the Lincoln-Lancaster County Safety Council, said his group has been urging a "more realistic ordinance with strict enforcement" for 5 or 6 years.

City Atty. Ralph Nelson said the proposed ordinance was drafted in consultation with various interested groups.

'In Ceylon We Go Slower' Judge From Far East Says

By Lennart Colson

Nebraska's Supreme Court will have as its "guest of the court," Tuesday a man who has traveled thousands of miles for the privilege.

He's Judge Hugh Fernando, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Ceylon, who along with Mrs. Fernando are guests of Nebraska Supreme Court Justice Robert Simmons and his wife.

Educated at Oxford University in England, Judge Fernando is making his first visit to America on a grant of the U.S. Department of State. He's returning a visit which Judge and Mrs. Simmons made to Ceylon in 1953.

What were Judge Fernando's first impressions of the U.S.?

"Everyone's moving around so fast," he answered. "In Ceylon we go much slower."

The judge claims America is "something I expected to find."

Vacation Of Two Streets Is Laid Over

The proposed vacation of 2 streets adjacent to the American Stores plant at 4th and N was laid over until next Monday by the City Council.

American Stores has requested the vacation in connection with proposed future plant expansion and has offered $8,052.75 as the "fair price" for acquiring the street right-of-way.

But, the Council was told the offer was below the minimum of 10 cents per square foot or a total of $9,860 required by ordinance.

The city real estate committee is to study the matter before final reading of the vacation ordinance next Monday.

The City Planning Commission has recommended the vacation of 4th between O and M and N from 3rd to 4th and 2 east-west alleys.

An easement for a sanitary sewer is being retained by the city. Council members toured the area Monday.

Anti-Vehicle Tax Petition Count 5,092

The initiative petitions for repealing the city vehicle tax now have a total of 5,092 names.

Petitions with an additional 948 names were referred Monday to the city attorney and election commissioner for checking.

Delivered last week to the election commissioner were 4,144 names.

The qualified voter count is not expected to begin until after the May 13 election because of other duties of the election office.

The petitions must contain 2,580 valid names to be sufficient.

A St. Plant Towers To Get Treatment

Accident Ends 4-Month LAFB Safety Record

A one-car accident near Raymond Monday night, which ended the 4-month safety record of Lincoln Air Force Base, resulted in head injuries for A2c Hugh B. Terrill, 20, of LAFB.

Terrill was rushed to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he underwent surgery, officials said. The exact extent of his injuries is unknown.

According to base officials, the car missed a curve on the edge of town and careened into a garage. The car was totally demolished in addition to damage to a pickup and car parked in the garage.

It was the first "reportable" accident involving an airman from the base since the first of the year. A reportable accident is one where the injured person is hospitalized over 24 hours.

Food Poison Strikes 300

Jackson, Miss. (INS) — An estimated 300 grade school children and their teachers were stricken with severe food poisoning Monday night, believed caused by ham served in the school cafeteria for lunch.

More than 90 of the victims were hospitalized while scores were treated at home by family physicians.

Samples of the food served at lunch consisting of ham, beans, apples, and ice cream, were taken to a state health laboratory. A report, however, will take about 24 hours to complete.

A Jackson pediatrics estimated that 75 children and 15 teachers were admitted to Jackson hospitals, suffering from acute food poisoning. Some of the victims have been released but 50 children and nine teachers were to remain overnight.

An On-Street Bingo Petition Drive Slated

An on-the-street drive, with some local house to house campaigning, has been decided upon by the VFW and Fraternal Order of Eagles in order to collect the required signatures for petitions to place the question of legalized bingo on the November ballot.

The drives will be conducted on Lincoln's downtown streets on the days of Thursday, May 15, and Saturday, May 17, according to Robert Lowe, state VFW adjutant. Some workers, he said, will cover various residential districts.

As to whether or not a more intense neighborhood drive would be conducted, Lowe said it would depend on the results of the drives.

Deadline for filing the required 56,794 valid petitions to the Secretary of State is July 3. Lowe said he "might have 52,000" petitions in his office, but that the campaign goal is about 70,000.

The drive is being spearheaded by the VFW and Fraternal Order of Eagles.

James E. Lawrence Dinner To Be Held May 17 At U Of N

Tickets for the May 17 testimonial dinner in honor of the late James E. Lawrence, editor of The Lincoln Star for 35 years and dean of Nebraska newsmen, are now available at the University of Nebraska School of Journalism office.

New York Times political writer William Lawrence, a World War II correspondent and former Nebraska newspaperman, will be featured speaker at the dinner.

Friends of the late Star editor not in the newspaper profession are welcome to attend, according to Dr. William E. Hall, director of the Journalism School, who said the dinner is open to the public.

The dinner will be held in parlors XYZ of the Student Union, which has a limited seating capacity of about 175. Walter W. White, publisher of The Star, will serve as master of ceremonies.

End Journalism Week

The dinner will climax the University Journalism Week activities, the first post-war Journalism Week celebration.

The New York Times writer is no relation but worked under and was a student of the late Mr. Lawrence. Now in the Times' Washington Bureau, Lawrence attended the University in 1929 and worked for The Star from 1931 through 1935, when he joined the United Press Washington Bureau.

James E. Lawrence, who died last September, was associated with The Lincoln Star for 50 years, 43 of which

Three Killed In Shooting

Muncie, Ind. (AP) — Three persons were killed Monday in a shooting affray that ended in front of a neighborhood tavern.

Lee Geter, 36, a Negro with a long police record of offenses including bootlegging and pandering, was killed by patrolmen Jack Hines and Marion Gibson after firing 3 or 4 ineffective shots at the officers with a shotgun.

Prentiss H. Gilmore, about 65, a white hotel porter, was killed by a gunshot from Geter's gun and apparently an innocent bystander.

The body of Jane Alice Jones, 27, Negro, who had a record of arrests for prostitution, was found in Geter's house.

Hines and Gibson said they were called to the scene after Geter fired at a cafe. Gilmore was shot down in a tavern adjacent to the cafe.

The patrolmen said there was no immediate explanation of the shootings but the Jones woman was reported to be Geter's common-law wife.

Accident Causes Injury To Woman

A 30-year-old expectant mother received a possible fracture of her right shoulder in a car-pedestrian accident at 13th and O Monday night, police said.

Injured and taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital for treatment and observation was Mrs. Rosa A. Delaney of 1720 M.

Driver of the auto was Bonnie H. Clough, 20, of 921 So. 31. The accident occurred at 9:15.

(Continued from Page One.) weather and watched him constantly but he gave no cause for alarm. About 20 lawmen were scattered throughout the County Courthouse to keep the crowd in check and also to guard Starkweather.

Starkweather was taken to the City Jail at Police Headquarters under police escort for the 2-hour noon recess. He ate a good lunch but left all of a portion of spinach he was given.

28 Witnesses

At the morning session Scheele listed the names of 28 witnesses he expects to call for the prosecution. The list did not include the name of Caril Fugate, Starkweather's 14-year-old companion on his recent murder spree.

It is doubted if she will be called as she also faces murder charges in the Jensen death, and could cite possible self-incrimination for refusing to testify.

Scheele had earlier filed a list of 64 prospective prosecution witnesses, but had said he would not call that many. The names of the 28 he said would be called:

Robert Jensen, Bennett, father of the victim.
Dennis L. Nelson, Bennett.
Ernest Hunt, Bennett.
Warren Kins, Bennett, rural mail carrier.

As contracts for the emergency program must be awarded by Dec. 1, and completed by Dec. 1, 1959, Rens said last letting for jobs would have to be done by Oct. 23, 1958.

He said Lincoln's interest in the emergency funds would give the city about $120,000, he said.

WOMAN HIT BY RUNAWAY AUTO SHE'S CHASING

Here's a new twist on a hit and run accident. Police say a driver running to stop her car was hit by the vehicle.

Mrs. Rose Miller of Omaha had parked her car in a drive at 1500 Stockwell. Just after she got out, she noticed the car was rolling back into the street.

As she ran back to stop it, she fell and a wheel of the car ran over her arm, according to police reports.

Mrs. Miller was treated for minor injuries and released by a Lincoln hospital.

Grasshoppers Swarming From Desert Into Lush Arizona Farm Areas

Emergency Is Declared

Phoenix, Ariz. (AP) — Millions of hungry grasshoppers are swarming from desert breeding places into the lush irrigated farming areas of Arizona.

Central Arizona farmers can't remember seeing so many before. The invasion has led Gov. Ernest McFarland to declare a state of emergency.

Crop dusters began spraying a 2-mile strip between Florence and Maricopa, a distance of 100 miles.

W. T. Mendenhall, state entomologist, said they hope to create a barrier to keep the hoppers in the desert.

The pilots will fly from dawn to dusk all this week, spraying the estimated 100,000 acres involved. Next week, they'll move to another area.

Hit Tucson

Swarms of grasshoppers descended on Tucson, covering the fronts of buildings and flitting about the lights.

Sidewalks became so slippery that pedestrians were forced to walk in the roadways away from the bright lights in store windows.

Pilots flying from Phoenix to Tucson reported sighting clouds of the insects at altitudes as high as 5,000 feet. One such flight was dense enough to set off air defense command alarms.

Mendenhall said the hoppers have destroyed some entire cotton fields in the starting stages and have caused extensive damage to alfalfa, wheat and barley crops.

Meeting-Tourist Group Planned By City C Of C

Plans for a special "convention-tourist steering committee" were discussed by representatives of both the Conventions Committee and the Publicity and Tourist Committee of the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

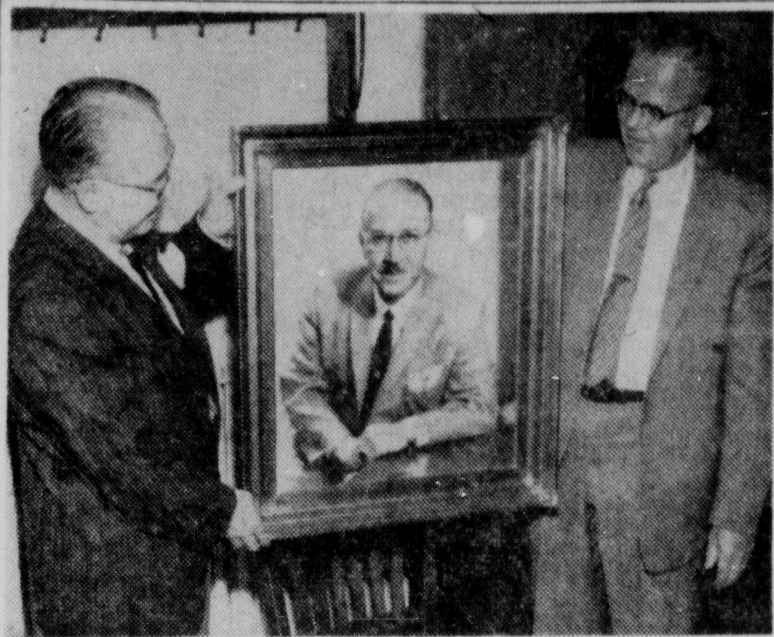

The new committee will be made up jointly of a few members from both committees and a representative of the Women's Division.

Members of the committee will be announced at a later date by Chairman Kenneth Witt and John Pavich of the 2 main committees respectively.

Hallam Plant Improvement Lab Planned

A $160,000 special laboratory to be used to improve the design of equipment for the Hallam atomic energy power plant will be built near Los Angeles by Atomics International.

Officials of AI, a division of North American Aviation, said the laboratory will be built about a mile from an experimental nuclear reactor in operation in the Santa Susana Mountains of California.

The facility will be used for sodium studies in connection with the Nebraska plant to be built for Consumers Public Power District, an AI spokesman said.

Emerson Jones of Lincoln, nuclear specialist with Consumers said the laboratory will investigate and improve component parts of the reactor.

The unit is part of a $1,250,000 building program of Atomics International to expand research facilities.

DON'T PANIC!—THOSE SIRENS JUST 'PRETEND' CD WARNING

If you hear the wail of sirens Tuesday don't worry, it's not a tornado nor has Charles Starkweather escaped.

The 7 sirens will trigger operation Alert 1958 in Lincoln — part of a nation-wide civil defense test involving half a million workers.

Only Michigan and Indiana are excused from the 2-day alert which will check the nation's ability to recover from enemy attack. These states plan special exercises later.

Two Signals

In Lincoln a 5-minute steady blast of sirens sometime Tuesday will signal the "evacuation" and 2 to 4 hours later a "take cover" 3-minute up-and-down signal will sound as part of the mock nuclear attack.

Tuesday night block wardens will visit homes to determine Civil Defense preparedness status, and Wednesday an assessment of the operation "damage" and "radioactivity" will be taken.

A number of business places are taking part in the exercise and their employees will evacuate to the Pershing Municipal Auditorium where Civil Defense headquarters will be located.

The test is aimed at testing the Civil Defense organization, its auxiliaries and volunteer organizations and the general public won't know an "attack is going on—aside from what they read in newspapers or hear.

The alert signal heralding a mock nuclear attack by aircraft, submarines and possible germ and biological warfare will take only 90 seconds to reach every part of the United States.

Land Of Plenty

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks has taken a good look at his crystal ball and decided we ain't seen nuthin' yet. This nation of ours is destined to be a land of plenty, as the secretary sees it, and he may be absolutely right.

Weeks predicts that the nation's total output of goods and services 10 years hence should hit $580 billion a year, compared with $434 billion last year. He forecasts, also, a 10-year rise in personal income to $460 billion from the current $343 billion. However, there is a great deal of speculation in what Weeks has to say. It would seem as though this nation has about reached a very significant place in its existence and might well be facing a very critical point in its history.

To date, the problem in the United States has never been one of saturation. There have always been new lands to cultivate and new and growing tastes and desires to satisfy. The country's productive capacity has just been able to keep up with the growth in population.

To a degree, this is still true as we have no utopia today; nor have we reached a point where a new horizon is still not stretched out before our eyes. The atomic age and the space age give promise of new and fascinating discoveries for mankind, and with these discoveries, a new challenge for our productive capacity.

But along with this new challenge has come equal progress in the methods of production. Industry has become more and more mechanized and agriculture has become more and more of a science. A man who spent eight hours at a task 10 years ago can now accomplish the same thing in many instances in less than half the time.

Land which could produce only 25 or 30 bushels of corn to an acre 10 years ago is now producing 100 bushels or more in many cases. Not only that, but such production is hit every year, not just when Mother Nature co-operates with the tillers of the soil. All other farming operations have been equally streamlined.

The big question that is raised by Weeks' remarks is whether our productive capacity has outdistanced our consumptive capacity. Do we have a demand for all the things we can produce or, even more pointed, for all the things our economy demands that we produce?

We talk of the four-day week; yet, it will do little to alleviate the plight of the unemployed. It is unnatural for man to have three days a week on which to loaf or pursue other non-productive goals. If a man works only four days at one job, he will seek employment elsewhere for another two or even three days a week.

That situation would only make things worse than they are today. In agriculture, the idea now is to get the small producer off the farm. This, too, will only compound the problem that faces agriculture. The problem is over-production. Thus, the problem will be increased by replacing the small or average producer of today with a larger and more efficient producer tomorrow. Weeks may be right in some of the figures he throws out but his conclusions leave serious doubts.

"The best," he said, "is yet to come." We think the best is a long way off unless the leaders of this nation begin to take a searching look at what is happening to us. We had better attempt to figure out how we are going to meet a period of plenty before we count its blessings.

Only Adding To Problems

Taken For Granted

The traditionally good relationships between the United States and Canada are deteriorating, according to the House Foreign Affairs Committee. The group outlined a nine-point program aimed at patching up the differences that have separated the two nations.

Also, President Eisenhower plans a visit to Ottawa this coming July to discuss with the Canadians problems of mutual concern. Certainly, it behooves this nation to do all within its power to maintain friendly relations with Canada. It is inconceivable that the United States and Canada could ever be actual enemies but that is not the point of concern.

If the United States is to maintain a position of strength and respect among the nations of the world, it must live by certain principles. It would certainly be a poor example to set if Canadian and U.S. relations were left to crumble to the state where their existence on the same continent was about the only common ground between them.

The United States would appear, and justly so, as a very poor friend to cultivate if it permitted those who associate with it to be dragged down by the weight of adverse economic and foreign trade policies. Canadians are objecting at this time to just such a situation.

Canada, while far below the United States in population, has a total area larger than that of this country and is rich in natural resources and industrial potential. The most recent figures available show Canadian exports to the U.S. in 1956 totaled $2,879,014,129 in merchandise while the country imported from the U.S. $4,161,666,638 in merchandise. A little more than one-half of its total export trade is with the United States while some four-fifths of its imports come from this country. On that basis alone, we would be doing ourselves a disservice by failing to retain the good will of our neighbor to the north.

Westward Movement

Most significant of all the revolutionary and significant decisions in Red China took place recently with hardly any fanfare, either in the outside world or in China.

The Mao regime decreed a language reform. It officially established the Latin alphabet—the same 26 characters we use—as the future implement of written expression. It means that China will begin moving away from its time honored ideographic manner of writing—those artistic picture symbols that are so nice to contemplate and so different to comprehend.

The first significant connotation lies in the fact that Mao did not choose the Russian alphabet. Although he has embraced Communism and drawn much of the Russian ideology and material aid, his selection of the Latin alphabet erects a formidable barrier between China and Russia—possibly as significant a barrier as this country erected against most sections of the world when, with independence, it chose to continue English as the official and general language.

A language can be a jail or a liberating force for a people, especially a written language, more so nowadays when advanced knowledge cannot be treated in generalities. One can imagine the difficulties of a written language which lacked the specific properties of dealing in the exact terms of science and sociology. An alphabet contains the bricks out of which a language is built.

The West may find in this alphabet change an easier path to the understanding of the Chinese language and China. And by the same token the adoption of the Latin alphabet will draw China closer to the western orbit.

Questionable Stupidity

When the Army revealed recently that one out of four draftees doesn't have enough sense to be a soldier the nation was shocked. One news commentator described it as appalling—this apparent epidemic of dull mindedness.

The Army said it had to get rid of 45,000 young men last year because capability tests indicated they were unfit for anything above the most menial work, such as floor mopping, kitchen police and latrine care. They were young men whose minds seemed to freeze their bearings when confronted with anything that showed any degree of complexity.

Despite the concern of commentators one suspects that mental deterioration is not subtly gripping American youth. It sounds more like a case of mental indolence which most professional teachers will confide, if in a situation of social safety, is mainly what is ailing American education. It takes a good deal of self-discipline and pants whacking to make the average mind go to work and that is something that has been increasingly absent in America's soft and lush life.

A recent examination of high school texts provided by the Lincoln schools showed them to be excellently written and illustrated, and lacking in none of the subject matter considered essential to this complicated age of science. The average high school graduate who had actually absorbed what was said by the instructor and contained in the texts would be an outstanding fellow. If he winds up mopping latrine floors or receiving an inadequacy army discharge it probably means he successfully withstood the best efforts of 12 years of teaching and spared his brain of all but the very minimum of pain and suffering.

A very intelligent person can flunk an IQ test if, for instance, he doesn't understand the language or the problem. The Army has this difficulty, too, with inducted individuals from foreign countries. Albeit they had been bright scholars in their homeland their lack of grasp of the king's English put them in the class of the latrine swabbers.

Weeks Under Fire For Complacency

WASHINGTON—Members of the House Appropriations Committee are agreed that Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks deserves a trophy in the "how foolish can you get?" category as a result of his recent closed-door testimony before them.

"Mr. Secretary," said Rep. Prince Preston of Georgia, "you have made a long statement here today, but I notice that you didn't touch on the current economic recession. As the secretary of commerce, perhaps you would like to comment on that."

"I'm glad to," replied Weeks. "I don't know why we have to be concerned. This is no depression, or even a recession, but just a business lull caused by the Russian Sputnik and the recent severe winter weather."

At first this evoked laughter from congressmen. Then it dawned on them that Weeks was serious. Furthermore, the cabinet officer didn't appreciate the laughter.

"Do you mean that?" inquired Rep. John Shelley of California. "Do you mind explaining?"

"Well, as I interpret it," replied Weeks, "the news about the Sputnik launching caused some public alarm and affected the business economy. The people were scared so that we had a let-down in spending. Then too, the winter weather always slows down business."

"Thank you, Mr. Secretary," commented Democrat Shelley, without attempting to conceal his partisan feelings. "You have given us a good illustration of the kind of thinking in this administration on the problems of our people."

The late Sen. Herman Welker of Idaho has left his earthly realm for happier climes, but his influence and relatives still hold sway in the Interior Department. The late senator had an interesting working arrangement with ex-secretary of the interior, "Generous Doug" McKay, when it came to nepotism. This nepotism has now fanned out a bit under kindly Secretary Fred Seaton.

The Interior Department payroll shows that Welker has had three brothers-in-law on the public payroll. They are:

Edward Woolzley, director of the Bureau of Land Management.

Westel B. Wallace, area administrator of the Bureau of Land Management with headquarters in Denver.

William Guernsey, who has been special assistant to his brother-in-law, Director Woolzley, until quite recently when he retired because of an accident.

However, this is not all of the nepotism roll-call. Mr. Woolzley has branched out by putting his son-in-law on the payroll in the Denver office of Land Management.

On top of this he has appointed his brother-in-law, Ernest Palmer, as assistant to the state supervisor of California in the Bureau of Land Management.

These are supposed to be under civil service. They are required to be filled under an old and honored law passed for the purpose of taking government jobs out of the category of political reward. Now, however, the motto is reward by relatives as well as politics.

U.S.-Russia In Race For Bigness

WASHINGTON—The conservative manner in which President Eisenhower handles the government economy, including the recession, has been high-lighted from an unexpected report which, as its name suggests, is the work of important men identified with large vested interests and strongly oriented toward the Republican party.

Naturally the anti-recession measures suggested in their bulky document got the headlines, especially as their tax cut proposal seemed to cut across the President's program. The business and financial community has since had time to give the report more intensive study and is voicing some arresting conclusions.

One is that, far from attacking the welfare state, the report takes the country further and faster along that path than Roosevelt and Truman did. The evidence: The report states as a fact that the nation is dedicated to economic growth and full employment and that to this end real wages ought to be doubled in 30 years, with a possible rate of growth of five per cent a year.

By contrast, the President has referred to the recession as "a minor emergency we are meeting internally." He dwells upon each bit of evidence that the climb back to the old plateau may have begun and has offered no growth plans.

Detailed forms of desirable government regulation of the economy are set forth also in the Rockefeller report, including use of the taxing power and monetary and fiscal policy. The federal government is urged to take the lead in transportation policy, land and water use on a national scale, urban problems and various other social needs.

The Rockefeller planners do not, of course, represent all of business and their philosophy is perhaps over-weighted with the ideas of eastern internationalists. But they are a sufficiently inclusive group to prove that a revolution in the thinking of important business interests has taken place since President Roosevelt took office.

That they are interests which intend to be counted in American politics can hardly be denied.

What the report does in a broad sense is accept it as proved that this nation is in a race for expansion with the Soviet Union. In its details it sets up a time table and direction signals for that race.

Politically its significance is two-fold. It demonstrates that the Democrats cannot count on a monopoly of liberal and progressive ideas in national campaigns no matter how many Republicans coalesce with Southern Democrats in Congress. It shows that a Republican presidential candidate who strikes out as the champion of economic growth and expansion can count on very telling support.

LA VERNÁ HASSLER

Patchwork Prairie Country

I was driving toward Lincoln the third day of May to hear Mari Sandoz speak—a native daughter who has made Nebraska proud. Any day in May is good for driving in Nebraska, but as I drove on this day I could not have understood more vividly how appropriate is "The Sower" atop our Statehouse.

I went back to the time when Nebraska was a territory—when it was a wild, untamed vastness that called for men to match its prairies. Men, strong to fight the stormy blasts—men to match its swelling rivers—men to match its rolling plains...

And then suddenly as I drove, I realized that here was the region where men were rooted in the fertile past, tolerant of the sun and wind and snow. As they tilled the soil leaving the thin finger scratches of a drill behind them, they felt the strong pulsation and timed their sowing to the earth's throb. Some fields sprouted young alfalfa or sweet clover, some were crowned with oats where the sowing had been completed, but always there was the urgency of getting things in to the ground. Soon it would be the corn. Rolling hills of wheat spread like an emerald carpet in every direction, evidence of an earlier season of sowing...

Then I saw the tall gray-blue spire of the capitol building topped by The Sower. Beneath in the early morning mist was the skyline of Lincoln, its factories and forges enriched by all things bought and sold. Suddenly I was proud, for noble people cannot be more wisely brave than those whose thoughts lift to the dome and The Sower and mingle with the faith and vastness of the universe.

I read where advertising men had a difficult time selling the instant coffee to the American public after the product came on the market. The company wondered why and so employed psychologists to look deep into the cause. They found, despite the fact that women said they didn't like the taste of the new coffee, the real reason to be a feeling of guilt and laziness when serving it.

Now, this may be true and I certainly would not argue the point with a distinguished psychologist, but I suggest noise has something to do with it. There's just nothing to equal the rhythmic perking of a pot of coffee topped by the cloud of aromatic steam that leaves the spout. The longer it boils, the more violent becomes the bubbling merriment. It's sort of like the drumming beat the jungle natives use long before a feast is to be served, to put people into the proper mood for eating.

Sakes alive, by the time I've listened to the lively percolating rhythm and smelled the pungent coffee fragrance, I'm drooling with anticipation!

The Farmer saw the great blue herons last night wading in the farm pond. Swift teal glided for cover almost minute in comparison with the giant herons. These are signs that winter is over despite the cold temperatures and chilly drizzle. Another sign is the complete disappearance of the alfalfa stacked in the field. Of course I cannot overlook another certain sign—The Farmer's request for the first rhubarb pie. Then there's the counting off of days until school is out. Every school-age child is taking part in this activity. But don't be misled. Their teachers are counting off the days, too. Then there's the matter of bringing the lawn mower out from its winter quarters and giving it the first oiling of the season. The way my arms and shoulders felt after hoeing in the garden the first day, a small amount of lubrication should have been applied to my aching joints.

Curtis Stand

McCook, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: For years The Lincoln Star has proven to be Nebraska's greatest paper by looking to the best interests of its subscribers and fellow Nebraskans.

Friday's editorial, "Curtis Is Disillusioned," is a very good example.

Sen. Curtis has consistently lined up with Big Business versus the people and voted for the gas gouge bill. He has spent most of his time trying to kill organized labor, trying to turn the farmer against labor, which is the old bund formula to divide and conquer. He is an enthusiastic stooge for monopoly.

One wonders what we must have been thinking of when he was elected in the first place. He would seem to be a more appropriate representative from a state like Texas.

Kefauver A Sore Point With Derby Bookies

NEW YORK—Bookmakers, many of them not only driven underground but (worse luck) into legitimate pursuits, had particular reason to get out their tiny effigies of Sen. Estes Kefauver and stick pins in same, last Saturday.

A lot of them would be rich today with their tax-free income from the nation's enthusiastic bets on Silky Sullivan in the Kentucky Derby. This big plug, the size of a Belgium beer horse, had caught the imagination of the peepul more than any nag in recent years. Though he had never run against the kind of competition he met in the Derby (mediocre as it was), or through fouler mud, $369,726 was bet on him at the track to win, place or show. He was lucky to finish 12th in a field of 14. One of the horses he beat, Warren G., stopped in the stretch.

Nobody will ever know what would have been bet on him in the books if they had been flourishing as they did B.K. (no, not Bulgani and Khrushchev, but before Kefauver.) Millions: Many of them!

I've never seen a more moving play than Dore Schary's "Sunrise, at Campobello." If it were about Rutherford Hayes, Franklin Pierce, Abner Doubleday or Thomas E. Dewey it would have almost as much emotional impact. But it is about the man that most of it happened to, from pomposity to when Julie Harris mastered the diction of the rhyme about precipitation on the plains of Spain (and the dance that followed with Rex Harrison), and 2) Mary Fickett playing a young and homely Eleanor Roosevelt—suddenly and terribly crying while trilling an off-key bedtime story to two of her children after a long day with her crippled husband and his querulous mother.

The script seems a little rough on Sara Delano Roosevelt, but the pro and con biographies agree the old gal must have been pretty tough to weather.

The most popular song in Japan today is "Yurakucho de Aimasho"—"I will meet you at Yurakucho." A very popular place for young lovers.

Love is very sad in Japan. Anything but sad love is for squares. It is a very popular sport for young lovers to jump into volcanoes. Or take a lethal jolt of yellow jackets. The "Yurakucho" song is not a sad song and the police are very glad about this.

When a sad love song comes out, they are constantly pulling young lovers off the fire escape. Before they take the big hop.

Machiko is a dance hostess at one of the elegant Ginza nightclubs in Tokyo. A few months ago, she took 100 sleeping pills.

"For love, Machiko?"
"I don't sink so. I sink no more want anything."

While telling such personal episodes, Japanese girls giggle constantly.

"Maybe you have boy friend-o?"

"No boy friend-o. Just sink very nice no more trouble."

"What kind of trouble?"

"I just sink very nice, ne?"
Machiko gave all her savings to her maid. Then she started eating sleeping pills.

"Hee, hee, hee, hee."
"Everybody very surprised I do ziss. I sink I very surprised, too. Hee, hee."

"Then what happened?"
"Maid come. She call police. Take me to hospital."

"You think maybe you do again?"
"I don't sink so."

"Why not?"
"I don't know. Hee, hee."

This morning the journals report three schoolboys have done the Dutch.

Senator McClellan tells how to CRACK DOWN on the labor gangsters

Is there really any effective method of protecting our country from the growing grip of labor gangsters?

In this week's Saturday Evening Post, Senator John McClellan, the man who exposed this evil, tells how we can stop the Dio, Becks and Hoffas—and explains what immediate action must be taken by Congress and the unions.

Every American should read the startling—and fearless—advice in "What We Learned About Labor Gangsters" by Senator John McClellan, Chairman of the Senate Investigating Committee.

Hollywood's Oriental Fad—No GI landing in World War II was quite like Hollywood's recent movie-making "invasion" of Japan. For example, read what happened to John Wayne and company.

The Saturday Evening POST
May 10, 1958 — 25¢
A CURTIS MAGAZINE

One schoolboy was in sad love. He reported his intentions to two close friends. They were so impressed, they went along with him.

This is very impressive to the Japanese. There is no cultural or religious feeling against such things. In fact, it is looked on with a good deal of respect.

Shinju is what really gets all the young readers. Shinju is when two lovers hop off together. When this happens, there is some mighty envious talk around Yurakucho. The audience flips.

It is quite an act. But as they say in show business: What do you do for an encore?

The Yurakucho department stores are also glad this is not a sad song. When this song came out, the department stores doubled their business.

The teen-agers went storming down to Yurakucho. (I assume the sleeping pill and pistol business picked up considerably, too.)

They went storming down and stood in front of record shops. Listening to the not-so-sad love song. Being sad and giving a professional eye to nearby fire escapes you could hop off.

"You have other girl friend who take pill, Machiko?"

"Oh, yes. Many girl take. Maybe have boy friend. Cannot marry. Maybe boy friend, say, sayonara. Sayonara, girl."

"Always sleep pill?"
"No, sometimes jump in Mihiyama. Volcano. Sometimes jump off cliff at Atami. Very romantic."

"We also have murishinju. When man want shinju, woman refuse. He shoot her first. Then after himself."

A very educational program. I do not even go shopping in Yurakucho. I figure I have a good deal of mileage left. I do not intend to burn up any rubber carelessly.

$2,728,106 Distributed In Gas, Fuel Revenue

The State treasurer's office reported that April gasoline and special fuel tax revenue distributions totaled $2,728,106.42.

The gasoline tax made up $2,584,002.33, and special fuel taxes accounted for $144,104.09.

The State Highway Construction Fund again received the largest share, $1,422,308.02. Distribution to counties was $559,596.60, and distribution for rural-star mail routes was $349,747.87.

Agriculture refunds were $697,412.85, and refunds to dealers $17,041.08.

WEATHER AHEAD

Temperatures for the next 5 days will average 2-4 degrees below normal over the eastern portion of Nebraska and near normal in the west, with no major day to day changes. Normal afternoon highs range from the upper 60s to the low to middle 70s; normal morning lows range from near 40 to near 50. Precipitation is expected to average .05 to .10 inch, occurring as scattered showers Tuesday night or Wednesday and again toward the end of the week.

Knowland, McClellan Urge 1958 Labor Cleanup

Evidence Of Corruption Is Claimed ... In Some Unions

Washington (AP)—Two senior senators said Monday Congress has a duty to act this year against corruption and other unsavory conditions in some labor unions.

Failure to legislate, declared Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate's Republican leader, "will stand as a permanent indictment of the record of the 85th Congress."

Knowland said the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee has produced "uncontested evidence of widespread corruption, arrogance and abuses in the operations of internal union affairs."

The chairman of the Rackets Committee, Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), added his voice to the plea for action. He said Congress would have to enter a controversial field and added:

"Positive Evidence"

"But we do have clear, positive evidence of certain practices that exist, and which no honorable American can condone."

"With respect to those practices, we have a responsibility to act—and that means a duty to act—to legislate with respect to them at this session of Congress."

Knowland and McClellan were the first two witnesses called by a Senate subcommittee in the task of drafting an omnibus labor reform bill.

Rev. Raible Heads Local U.N. Group

The Rev. Peter Raible was elected president of the Lincoln chapter of the American Association of United Nations.

Other officers elected were Leonard Bronder, vice president; Sidney Henderson, treasurer; and Mrs. R. T. Malone, secretary.

The group set June 3 for its next meeting.

Keller Proposes Agency To Allot State Automobiles

An independent agency to handle assignment of state cars was proposed Monday by Clarence V. Keller, Lincoln, candidate for the Legislature from the 19th District.

Keller also attacked his opponent, State Sen. Stanley Portsche, for saying he would study the introduction of legislation to prohibit personal use of state cars. There is currently such a law in the books, Keller said.

Portsche said he would request an attorney general's opinion on the use of state automobiles. He made the statement following charges by Marilyn Stroman, Lincoln candidate to the State Railway Commission on the Republican ticket, that commission employees were making personal use of state-owned cars.

—1958 PULITZER AWARDS— Coverage Of Little Rock Violence Wins 3 Prizes

New York (AP)—Coverage of the explosive integration crisis at Little Rock's Central High School won 3 separate 1958 Pulitzer prizes in journalism Monday.

They went to the Little Rock, Ark., Gazette for meritorious public service; the newspaper's executive editor, Harry S. Ashmore, for editorial writing; and Associated Press Correspondent Relman (Pat) Morin for his eyewitness account of mob violence outside the school Sept. 23.

Morin, a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1951, was one of 2 winners this year for national reporting. The other was Clark Mollenhoff of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, who was cited for his investigation of labor racketeering. Mollenhoff also is Washington correspondent of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune.

Objectivity Praised

In the case of the Arkansas Gazette, it marked the first time a newspaper captured the public service award while one of its editors was winning the editorial prize for the same news event. Separate citations lauded the newspaper and its editor for objectivity in the face of mounting public tension.

The 1958 fiction award went to James Agee's novel, "A Death in the Family." It deals with a Southern family's reaction to the death of a beloved father. It was completed by Agee before his death in 1955.

The annual drama award went to "Look Homeward, Angel," Ketti Frings' adaptation of the late Thomas Wolfe's autobiographical novel of the same name. It has been a Broadway hit since its opening last Nov. 28.

It was the 41st annual award of prizes established by the late Publisher Joseph Pulitzer. They are made annually by the trustees of Columbia University on recommendation of the advisory board on the Pulitzer prizes. The public service newspaper award consists of a gold medal. All other journalistic awards carry a $1,000 prize. The art awards are $500 each.

Other Awards

Other press awards included: The Fargo, N.D., Forum, for local reporting under the pressure of edition time in its news and picture coverage of a tornado that struck that city the night of last June 20.

The New York Times for international reporting. It was the first time a newspaper staff had been collectively honored in this category. The award lauded the Times for distinguished coverage of foreign news.

Bruce M. Shanks of the Buffalo, N.Y., Evening News, for cartooning. His Aug. 19 cartoon depicting the dilemma faced by members of some labor unions with racketeers among their leadership. It was entitled "The Thinker."

William C. Beall of the Washington, D.C., Daily News, for photography. His picture of a policeman patiently reasoning with a small boy who was trying to get closer to a passing parade was entitled "Faith and Confidence." It appeared last Sept. 11.

In the field of art, the following awards were announced:

History—"Banks and Politics in America—from the Revolution to the Civil War," by Bray Hammond of Thetford Center, Vt. 71-year-old retired assistant secretary of the Federal Reserve Board.

Biography—"George Washington," 6 volumes of which were written before his death in 1953 by Douglas Southall Freeman, and the remaining volume written afterwards by John Alexander Carroll and Mary Wells Ashworth. Freeman won a similar prize in 1955. His associates, Carroll and Mrs. Ashworth, were commissioned to complete the biography. However, the $500 prize will go to Freeman's estate.

Poetry—"Promises: Poems 1954-1956," by Robert Penn Warren, who won a Pulitzer Prize in fiction in 1957. His poetry has been described as "a kind of rough-hewn beauty."

Music—"Samuel Barber for the score of his first opera, 'Vanessa.' Twice winner of a Pulitzer Prize in 1957. His opera became the first scholarship holder to win the music prize. He is 48.

A. J. Weaver Seaway Port Appointee

Lincoln insurance man Arthur J. Weaver has been appointed Nebraska representative to work with the Port Authority of Duluth, Minn., in connection with the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The appointment was made by Gov. Victor Anderson.

The Minnesota Legislature has passed Port Authority bills appropriating $10 million for the development of facilities to accommodate foreign commerce, with the opening of the Seaway.

Gov. Anderson pointed out that Nebraska, in part, comes within the trade area served by these facilities.

Weaver will assist in developing the full potential of the Seaway to the mutual benefit of Minnesota and Nebraska, the governor stated.

State Placement Assn. Optimistic On Job Outlook

An optimistic picture of the employment situation was painted Monday night at a meeting of the Nebraska Placement Service Assn.

The association, representing 9 employment agencies in Nebraska, held its meeting in Lincoln.

Good jobs are "going begging" due to the lack of competent persons to fill them, Mrs. Betty Potter of Omaha, president of the group, said. She said this was particularly true of women white collar workers. An extreme shortage in this job area was predicted in the near future by Mrs. Potter.

Shelf for Dolly • Safe, Sane Night • Salad Dip In Hot Water • Bamboo Divider • Head Start

Graduation Night

One of the most exciting times in any young life is Graduation Night. (Remember how grown-up and fearless you felt?) It's a night for celebrating—but parents and teachers should take an active part in the festivities. We salute those communities who plan big, joint parties (without cars) where everybody celebrates together. Easier on young budgets, too! If your community hasn't planned such a shindig, perhaps it's not too late. Phone a few mothers—see how fast the idea spreads!

Quick Divider

If you'd like to split a room into two parts and don't exactly want a room-divider, you might hang split-bamboo drapes (the kind that fold accordion-style) from a ceiling track. Not only divides the room, but gives a nice, airy effect. You can augment this with potted philodendron in wall-holders, clinging its fragile way across the bamboo on either side.

Souffle Sandwiches

Sunday night supper, maybe? Bridge club luncheon? You'll find a dozen good ways to use this recipe from Dorothy Van Sloun, Minneapolis, Minn.: Mix together 2 cups minced chicken or tuna, 3 Tbsp. mayonnaise, 1 tsp. prepared mustard and salt and pepper to taste. Spread on 6 slices buttered bread, and place 6 more slices of buttered bread on top. Place in buttered, oblong baking dish. Mix together this sauce: 4 slightly beaten eggs, 3 cups milk, 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce, 1 tsp. salt and 1 Tbsp. grated onion. Pour over sandwiches. Let stand overnight in refrigerator, then bake at 325 degrees for one hour. Serve hot with mushroom sauce to six people.

Crunchy Dipper

Instead of serving salad next time, fix raw vegetables in "finger sizes". (Tufts of cauliflower, strips of carrot or celery, cucumber sticks, fresh green onions.) Arrange on large platter; leave space in center for a bowl of this: Mix together one 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, 3 tsp. Horseradish, 1/2 tsp. salt, 3 1/2 Tbsp. mayonnaise. Garlic's good here, too...but judge this one by the preference of your guests!

In Hot Water

Most of us are in hot water most of the time, evidently. Survey says 80 percent of all the water most families use is hot! A modern automatic gas water heater that's ample enough for the needs of your growing family keeps the hot water flowing in proper quantity for your needs. Saves time, money and family tempers... and is an economical investment, too! Just ask your local gas company or your plumber dealer.

Dolly's Shadow Box

Does your little daughter or granddaughter leave undressed dollies and scattered doll clothes all over the house? Buy unpainted open shelves (or have Dad make them) and attach them to the wall in Daughter's room. Paint them to harmonize with wall paint or paper. At the end of every play session, fully-clothed dolls go into their own separate niche... on display!

Christmas Gift... Now?

I don't think it's too early to talk about a 1959 calendar! You could please a good friend with this gift, started well in advance of Christmas! Many needlework departments carry calendar stamping forms. If not, you could get transfers for numerals, and embroider an entire yearly calendar. (A linen towel or framed canvas is a good background.) Now, dot all of the friend's family birthday-dates and anniversaries with sequins...for remembering! Cute idea?

So Old... So New

Natural gas is indeed a modern miracle... yet the Chinese discovered it 500 years before Socrates was born! The Orientals piped it through hollow bamboo rods. Today, Northern Natural Gas Company pipes it through hundreds of miles of modern pipelines from far-away states to your town, and your local gas company—the neighbors who bring it to you. The fuel for modern living... enjoying more usage every year, right here in your home community!

Red Connection Said Exposed In Heikkila Case

Rep. Hillings Cites Probe

San Francisco (AP) — Rep. Pat Hillings (R-Calif.) said a congressional investigation into the deportation of Finland born William Heikkila had exposed an underground Communist apparatus in this country that is going to be very amazing to people.

He said Heikkila and the Communists have tried to make his deportation to Finland and subsequent return last month a "cause celebre."

Hillings said Heikkila's legal fees in his 10½-year fight to evade deportation had been paid by the Northern California Committee For the Protection Of The Foreign Born.

The congressman said this group is a subsidiary of the American Committee For the Protection of the Foreign Born, which has been labeled a Communist front organization by the U.S. Attorney General.

The 147 county residents on the Starkweather jury panel file past newsmen, lawmen and officials as they enter the courtroom where 12 of them will be selected to serve on the jury for the murder trial. (Star Photo)

No Connection

"Heikkila," said Hillings, "maintains he has had no connection with the Communist party since 1939."

"Yet, at a congressional hearing in 1956, he took the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions about his connection with the Communist party," Hillings said.

Heikkila, 52, claims he was arrested by U.S. Immigration officers as he left his work as a draftsman on April 18 and was whisked out of the country without having an opportunity to talk with his wife or his attorney.

"The facts are," said Hillings, "he could have talked with his wife if he had asked to. He had a third party telephone his wife that he had been apprehended."

Unco-operative

"Mr. (Bruce) Barber talked with Mrs. Heikkila at the time and asked her if there were any pills Heikkila should have because of his high blood pressure. Mrs. Heikkila was unco-operative and told the Immigration inspector that he could call the doctor himself to find out whether Heikkila should take any pills with him."

Hillings, a member of the House subcommittee on Immigration, which is a part of the House Committee on the Judiciary, said he was convinced there was no cause to censure Barber for taking Heikkila out of the country to Canada and deporting him to Finland.

Council To Discuss Zoning Change For Hinky Dinky

A zoning-change ordinance for the proposed Hinky-Dinky shopping center at 59th and Adams is to be introduced next Monday before the City Council.

Atty. Lloyd Marti, representing American Community Stores Corp., said his client would "acquiesce" to the recommendations of the City Planning Commission.

The Commission recommended local business zoning for the one-block site except for the south 25 feet. On this portion a special use permit is recommended for a service drive and suitable landscape screening.

Bride-Elect Is Honored

Complimenting a University of Nebraska coed, Miss Anne Wade of Osceola, Ia., on Sunday afternoon were Miss Janet Rhoda of York and Miss Karen Peterson who were co-hostesses at the linen shower held at the home of Miss Peterson.

The guests included Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters of the bride-elect, whose marriage to Don Rhoda of York will take place in August. Special guests were Mrs. James Wade of Osceola, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Fred Rhoda of York, mother of Miss Wade's fiancé.

The Star In Suburbia

EASTRIDGE

Keep your tickets intact for a merry Eastridge showing this Tuesday ayem as we have the stage set for a preview of the latest birthday festivities, bridge gatherings, coffees, and a dance routine presented by the younger generation.

A party hostess last Thursday evening was Mrs. Joseph Neal who complimented a number of the busy mothers in the neighborhood at an 8:15 o'clock dessert lunch and coffee. Guests for the affair were Mrs. Dean Tompkins, Mrs. Duane Grantski, Mrs. Morris Huelke, Mrs. A. W. Wilson, Mrs. Dale McCracken, Mrs. Max Hulbert, Mrs. Norman Stones, Mrs. Frank Lambert, Mrs. Stanley Walden, Mrs. LeRoy Ross and Mrs. Roy Way.

A farewell courtesy was an event at the Woodrow Livengood home last Tuesday when the guest of honor was Mrs. Harold Boker. On hand for the coffee besides the honoree were Mrs. Richard Engel, Mrs. Harold Hargreaves, Mrs. Joseph Kinney, Mrs. Emerson Wicks, Mrs. Carl Kugel, Mrs. Robert Kirkman, Mrs. Cyrus Jones, Mrs. Don Zank, Mrs. Thomas Huxtable and Mrs. Merwin Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Boker and their three daughters said goodbye to their Eastridge friends on Wednesday evening when they motored to Omaha where they will reside.

Miss Martha Hedge, Miss Gretchen Hedge and Miss Karen Rose are three talented gals in Eastridge who were all "dolled-up" on Saturday evening when they took part in the Judy Howard Dance Recital at Prescott School. Motoring to Lincoln from Beatrice to attend the recital with Martha and Gretchen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hedge, were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Bates, who were week end guests at the Hedge home.

Miss Rose is the daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Howard Rose.

Bridge is next on the news agenda and it was last Friday afternoon when one of the Eastridge clubs had as its hostess Mrs. Joseph Farrell. A dessert lunch was served during the bridge party to the members who include, in addition to Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. John Hedge, Mrs. Howard Rose, Mrs. Charles Vollmer, Mrs. Douglas Brogden, Mrs. Robert Kinsey, Mrs. Lynn Laubaugh and Mrs. Bernard Wendt.

A week end excursion to Holdrege was included among the social events planned by the James Hutchinson family last week. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson and their daughter, Mary Lee, motored to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Arden Means on Saturday and returned to the suburb on Sunday evening.

Courtesy

In surprise birthday courtesy to Miss Shirley Talley, a group of her Northeast High School classmates entertained at a party on Monday, May 5.

The 15th birthday celebrant was honored at her home, and making arrangements for the informal afternoon affair was Miss Talley's mother, Mrs. Lawrence Talley, Miss Barbara Jean Benzing and Miss Sharon Swenson.

Town Talk

—on a sunny morning in May there should be news — and sunny or not — news we have.

There are, as one might suspect, parties for a June bride—and in this instance the bride-elect is Miss Carolyn Carter who is to marry Jack Holmquist on June 14.

On Miss Carter's courtesy calendar for today are two parties — one of them is the luncheon for which Mrs. Clifford Hicks will be hostess when she entertains at the University Club. Miss Carter will be presented with a hostess gift.

The second party is also at the University Club — a dessert supper and miscellaneous shower for which Mrs. H. B. Morton, Mrs. B. F. Schwartz and Mrs. Theo Miller will be hostesses this evening.

—and on the agenda for the Lincoln Junior League today is the 9:30 o'clock coffee to be held at Hotel Cornhusker. Included on the schedule of business will be the report on the Children's Theater conference, held recently in Omaha, which will be presented by the two Lincoln Junior League delegates, Mrs. Charles Thorne and Mrs. Harry Megianis.

—understand that Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Smith and Dr. Fritz Teal all were in Alton, Ill., during the weekend — and for two attractive reasons — Miss Sharon Smith and Miss Linda Teal. It seems that Dads were honored guests at Monticello College May 2, 3 and 4, and judging from the calendar of events they had little time to call their own. There were dinners, dances, softball games (between dads and daughters)—and golf.

—just looked over the list of 1948 Mortar Boards again and noticed that the group is scattered from Alaska to Africa. We mentioned the ones from Nebraska, Alabama and one recently from Heidelberg, Germany yesterday — but we discover that Mrs. David Knapp (Mary Jo Campbell) now resides in Anchorage, Alaska — and that Mrs. Arnold Moede (Beth Noerenberg) is in Monrovia, Liberia, Africa.

To be found here and there throughout the States are Mrs. Robert Baker (Mary Dye) of Scottsdale, Ariz.; Mrs. Willard Visek (Priscilla Flagg), of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Stanley Johnson (Harriet Quinn) Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. J. J. Rowan (Marian Weath) El Paso, Tex.; Mrs. Fred McLafferty (Elizabeth Curley) of Wellesley, Mass.; Mrs. Dwight Baier, Orange, Calif.; Mrs. Henry Andersen, (Mary Esther Dunkin) Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Frank Loeffel (Shirley Schnittker), of Lexington, Ky.

Head Safari Dancing Club

The newly-elected officers of the Safari Dancing Club met on Sunday evening, May 4, to discuss plans for the coming year. The informal get-together was held at the home of the past presidents of the group, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Givens.

with her husband (not pictured) fills the vice presidency, and (standing) Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rauscher, who will serve as secretary and treasurer.

Dear Abby . . . Pity The Tired Waitress

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am one of the many waitresses who wants to thank you for saying waitresses depend on "tips" because their salaries are amazingly small. Only you should have said "pitifully" small. The work of a waitress is hard, the hours are long and the trays are heavy. We have to smile when our feet are sore and our arms are stiff. Every person who complains about having to tip a waitress should work in a restaurant for ONE DAY. Now, I feel better! ONLY A WAITRESS

DEAR ABBY: Why should the PUBLIC be expected to pay waiters and waitresses for doing their job? EMPLOYERS should pay their help whether they are waiting table, shoeing horses, or driving a bus.

TIRE OF TIPPING
DEAR ABBY: Please tell those people who resent having to leave a tip for the waitress they should eat in a cafeteria and wait on themselves.

THE WAITRESSES AT THE HOTEL
DEAR ABBY: Our little boy is two and a half years old and the only grandchild on both sides. Whenever we take him to either set of grandparents they immediately get out cookies, pretzels, candy and soda pop and give it to him to keep him happy. They seem to think they have to feed him "junk" all the time. My husband and I don't like to hurt anyone's feelings, but how can we let them know we don't like it one bit?

YOUNG PARENTS
DEAR YOUNG: You certainly know your parents well enough to tell them that the child has scheduled mealtimes and you don't want him eating between meals. If you tell them sweetly (but firmly) you'll have no problem.

DEAR ABBY: I am informally engaged to a wonderful guy. He went with a girl before he met me and every time we are in the presence of his mother or sisters, her name is brought into the conversation. I have heard her whole life history a dozen times already and there is a limit to everything. I haven't blown my top as yet, but the pressure is rising. What should I do?

IRISH
DEAR IRISH: Cool off and keep the pressure down. When they can't get a rise out of you—they'll cut it out.

CONFIDENTIAL TO KAY: You can keep it under your hat but that's not where it's going to show. Tell your mother.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SUZIE Q.: Now that you've made up your mind—make up your heart.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Coeds Receive Recognition

At the Bar Activities Board For Women's Recognition dessert supper held on Monday evening at the Student Union, 25 coeds were awarded scrolls for outstanding activities on the Nebraska campus.

The Independent (unaffiliated) women receiving the scrolls were Sue Hinkel, Marilyn Waechter, Evonne Einspahr, Mary Vrba, Dorothy Glade, Patsy Kaufman, Sharon Sterner, Ruth Roubal, Rochelle Hergenrader, LaRee Naviaux, Marie row) Misses Woodside, Waechter, Higbee, Einspahr, Kaufman, Montgomery.

Hear Talks

The members of the Lincoln Toastmistress Club met at the Capital Hotel on Monday, and toastmistress for the evening was Mrs. Robert Laird.

Theme of the evening's speeches was, "The Art of Successful Human Relations", and speakers and their topics included: Mrs. Josephine Stromer, "A Point of View"; Mrs. Millard Bennett, "From the Workers Standpoint"; Mrs. O. J. Martens, "Ink on Paper"; and Miss Joan Williams, "How to Decorate a Better Window".

Mrs. Harry Gaylor served as topic mistress, and the general evaluator was Miss Estelene Porter.

Among the guests invited for the evening were Miss Maria Scheidt, Miss Ardis Hunt, Miss Olga Cherry and Mrs. Evelyn Whiting.

dragons and red carnations, the Rev. Russell Howen of Morrell read the lines of the service.

Wearing frocks of white nylon sheer, the full skirts caught with red bows over plated dust ruffles, were the maid of honor, Miss Marilyn Larsen of Columbus; the bridesmaids, Miss Beth Bartels, Spokane, Wash., Miss Ardis Fahr, Council Bluffs, and Miss Eva Mekosh, Genoa; and Miss Claudia Larsen and Miss Connie Larsen, Columbus, who lighted the candles. Miss Joan Moore of Gresham was the flower girl, and the ringbearer was Donald Sieh of Columbus.

Jerry Anderson of Grand Island served as best man, and the ushers were Otto Struckman of St. Charles, Mo.; Orville Davidson, Gresham; Arlyn Franzen and Richard Korte, Columbus; and Bob Moyer, York.

The bride appeared in a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. Soft folds of illusion fashioned the V neckline of the lace bodice, and the brief sleeves were complemented by long mitts of the lace. The very full skirt of lace was draped over ruffled tulle, and a coronet of lace and pearls held her illusion veil. She carried white roses centered with deep red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in Columbus where the bridegroom is employed by the State Highway Department. The bride is a former student at Concordia College, Seward.

Face 40...without fear!

The changing years... If you've stopped "growing up" (and if you're 21 plus, you have), changes are occurring in your body!

There is a gradual slowing down of the various bodily functions. The rate of shedding and renewing of skin cells is diminished (so your skin may look sallow). There then to wrinkles and bags. And there may be other symptoms: flakiness, deepening contours, tender and "caloused" areas.

But all that this natural slowing-down process should mean to you is that it's time to spend some time on yourself, to give nature a hand.

That's why Tussy created Beauty Diet. It's a marriage of two new products. One, the new Beauty Diet Cream to aid from without—second, the new Beauty Diet Vitamin and Mineral Capsule to aid from within.

is a progressive loss of natural skin moisture (perhaps your skin has taken on that typical, dry, "papery" shine). The under layer of the skin is also affected. In contrast to young skin—with its vital suppleness and elasticity—older skin, when stretched by muscular movement, fails to spring back to normal smoothness. This leads first to lines, polyunsaturates, for "diet-dry" skin, rich oil blends, hormones, and Royal Jelly, of course. When used nightly, then lightly under make-up during the day, your skin never seems to dry out. Even extra-dry patches begin to look moist and supple. Flakiness all but disappears, lines and crow's feet become less conspicuous.

Why the New Capsule?

Consider the new Vitamin and Mineral Capsule in Beauty Diet as a dietary supplement. It's an exclusive formulation made according to pharmaceutical standards. A capsule may help you overcome a deficiency you're not even aware of! And this deficiency may be due to an imbalance in your diet, or to your system's reduced ability to utilize vitamins from food. Taken once a day, every day, the capsules can give you a new vitality, a new sense of well-being.

Why the New Cream?

The very air we breathe may rob the moisture from our skin. And age itself may strip away natural protective oils. That's the reason for Beauty Diet's New Cream. It's a combination of active beautifiers including moisturizers,

After O'Neill suffered a mile heart attack Jan. 22, Taft announced himself as a "standby" candidate for the GOP nomination in case O'Neill's health forced him to abandon his bid for renomination. Taft, while saying he supports O'Neill, has stayed in the contest despite the assurances of O'Neill and others that it was not necessary in view of the governor's apparent full recovery.

The voters also will select delegates to the state convention of the 2 parties which will nominate candidates for the U.S. Senate, minor state offices, 4 appellate court judgeships and one seat on the State Supreme Court.

They will vote for 72 members of the State Democratic Executive Committee, 8 from each of Alabama's 9 congressional districts.

2 Omaha Workmen Killed

Son Watches Helplessly As Father Falls

From Press Dispatches
Omaha—Two Omaha workmen, one a steeplejack and the other an employee of an elevator company, lost their lives Monday in separate accidents while on the job.
The victims were:
James H. Bartlett, 66.
Max Gripp, 24.
A steeplejack, Bartlett plunged 40 feet to his death in the Omaha industrial district as his son watched helplessly. The elder Bartlett fell from near the top of a smokestack to the first floor roof of the Central Mattress Co.
Authorities said the top 5 feet of the metal smokestack broke off as Bartlett was painting the section. His son, James H. Jr., looked on unable to help as his father fell to his death.

Crushed To Death
Gripp was crushed to death while testing a newly installed lift at the Livestock Exchange Building.
An employee of the Haughton Elevator Co. of Toledo, Gripp was testing the last of 3 automatic elevators which were installed in the building over the last 2 weeks. He was working on the main floor.
Gripp was caught between the cage and its shaft. The elevator finally stalled between the main and second floors.
It took 1½ hours for rescue squadmen and police to dismantle the elevator and remove the body.

Child Run Over By Disk Harrow Is Recovering

Grand Island, Neb.—Eight-year-old Richard Brundage, Cairo farm boy, was reported in "satisfactory" condition Monday in a Grand Island hospital.
He is recovering from injuries received when he was run over by a disk harrow.
The son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brundage, who farm near Cairo, Richard was playing at the home of neighbors, the Gerald Luhrs, when his playmate, Gary Luhn started a tractor with a disk-harrow. The 2 boys were riding on the tractor when it struck a bump and Richard fell off.
The disk passed over Richard, causing severe facial cuts and leg and body bruises.

Mid-State Progress Good-Seaton

Grand Island, Neb. (P)—Interior Secretary Fred Seaton was said Monday to be impressed with progress made in Washington the past 3 months in connection with the Mid-State Irrigation District in central Nebraska.
L. E. Ray, president of the Diamond Engineering Co. and head of the Grand Island Industrial Foundation, visited with Seaton concerning the Mid-State project last week.
Bills have been introduced in both the Senate and House to authorize federal participation in the project, which would provide irrigation in Buffalo, Hall and Merrick Counties.
Ray was accompanied on the Washington trip by William Hehnke and William B. Hight, directors of the industrial foundation, and Ralph Powell, manager of the Grand Island Chamber of Commerce.
Ray said Seaton expressed willingness to do everything possible to smooth the way in order that the Mid-State project will make progress in progress.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONOID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).
(1) COLONOID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONOID's unequalled rebulking action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONOID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon. COLONOID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy. And COLONOID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONOID, today!

Piver's 4-Run Homer Beats Demons

Chiefs Nip
DM 6-5
With Rally

Des Moines (P)—Des Moines ended a 23-inning shut out streak with five runs in the seventh, only to have Vern Piver hit a homer with the bases loaded in the eighth for a 6-5 Western League victory Monday night.

Piver also doubled home a run in the first when the Chiefs scored their other two runs. His blow followed a triple by Ray Looney and Piver scored when Jim Aldredge singled.

Dick Lines, shooting for his third straight victory, blanked Des Moines on four hits until the seventh. Then he handed his first walk of the game to Manager Roy Hartsfield and Ed Lindsey followed with a single.

Bob Aspromonte bunted and Lines' throw to third was in time for a forceout, but got away from Jim Campbell and Hartsfield scored.

After Elmer Kohorst singled to load the bases, pinch-hitter Tod Sichel and Bob Holderfield each slapped a two-run single.

Preliminaries to Piver's clout over the left-field fence were singles by Eddie Sada and pinch-hitter Dave Brennan, plus a walk to Looney.

The victim was Jack Smith, who came in after starter Jim Steinhour was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh. Steinhour had blanked the Chiefs on two hits for six innings after giving the two runs in the first.

The victory was the fourth straight for the league leaders over Des Moines. Ed Bauta, who replaced Lines in the 7th, was the winner.

Beautiful memories on a beautiful day:

... Keith Gardner breezing over the high hurdles in record time, digging through a 9.6 hundred or floating around the track in a leg of the mile relay ...

... Julie Javier, Chiefs' second baseman, scooping up hot drives like a hungry baby grabbing for his bottle ...

... NU Vaulter Ken Pollard effortlessly clearing 14 feet and making that long, long drop seem like inches ...

... The graceful outline of a speedboat cutting past its own spray while making a sharp turn ...

... The sight of a half dozen pretty NU co-eds strolling across campus in colorful bermudas ...

Pair of Wesleyan discus throwers did well in the Sioux Relays over the week-end ... Jim Wiberg was second in the meet with a toss of 143-8, and Larry Cook took fourth with 143-3.

Wesleyan's fine relay teams will be entered in the Doane Night Relays at Crete tonight, although with 31 colleges and junior colleges from six states.

Five youngsters had a whale of time early Sunday night at Pioneer's Park ... a young man gave them one of the finest and fastest rides they had ever had on a merry-go-round ... parents of the kids—ranging from four to nine years old—might be interested to know that the young man who spent a half hour entertaining the youngsters was Larry Naviaux, No. 1 left halfback on the University of Nebraska football team.

Bob Cerv, popular Nebraska athletic grad, is burning up the American League ... he's leading in RBI's, home runs and is batting over .400 ...

Wonder how long it will be before the Yanks buy him back?

Coach Harold Scott's Lincoln High track team did it again ... definitely underdogs in the Public Schools meet the Links upset Northeast to win their fifth straight city title.

"A lot of boys that I wasn't counting on came through with great performances," is the way Scott explains his surprising victory ... Among those were Juris Jesifers, who won the high jump ... Dick Ripley, mile winner with 4:44.6 ... and the 2-mile relay team of Phil Kelly, Cliff Sibley, Mark Matulas and Gaylon McWilliams.

SE Trims Links 4-3

Dave Myers singled with men on 2nd and 3rd to score 2 runs and give Lincoln Southeast a 4-3 victory over Lincoln High Monday afternoon.

Myers' hit brought SE from behind and gave the win to Dennis Sieck, who hurled a 4-hitter in going the route. A pair of hits and 3 errors had given LHS all its runs off Sieck in the second inning.

Southeast picked up single runs in the first 2 innings, the first on a walk, error and Bill Redmond's first of 3 straight singles. The second run came on a pair of hits, a walk, and a bases-loaded hit batsman by the Links' pitcher, Harold Kelley.

Houser Throws 53-10 1/8

... In Pius Dual

Don Houser of Pius X got off the best shot put of the Nebraska prep season, but Lincoln Southeast handily took the dual track meet Monday, 75-48.

Houser heaved the shot 53-10 1/8 to better the previous season high of 53-8 3/4 by Ken Hinrichs of Hastings. Houser had been in 2nd place with 52-3.

Other top marks in the meet were an 11-6 pole vault by Virgil Kubert and a 4:47.3 mile by Jack Clair, both of Southeast. Kubert also won the high hurdles.

Dave Higgins was a busy man for Pius. He won the 220 and discus, tied for first in the high jump, ran 2nd in the 100, and ran on the winning 880 relay team.

Wall To Play For Prep Stars

Jan Wall, Lincoln Northeast's All-State basketball whiz, has been selected to play for the West in the Wigwam Association's high school All-American All-Star game in Hutchinson, Kan.

The game will be played in Hutchinson, Kan., June 1. Wall joins another Nebraskan, Jerry Johnson of North Platte, on the West team.

Kansas Wins Dual

Manhattan, Kan. (P)—The Kansas Jayhawkers won their 10th straight dual track meet, downing Kansas State 88 1/6 to 47 5/6. Seven meet records were broken and one was tied in 16 events.

With the addition of 2 more sub-two-minute half milers last week, the 1958 Nebraska track season can now lay claim to the fastest 880 field in history.

Ten Nebraska high school track athletes have now bettered 2:00, 3 of them this year. Tom Komarek of Creighton Prep ran 1:59.0 2 weeks ago, but was beaten by Omaha Central's Gene Owens in 1:59.3 in the Inter-City in Omaha Saturday.

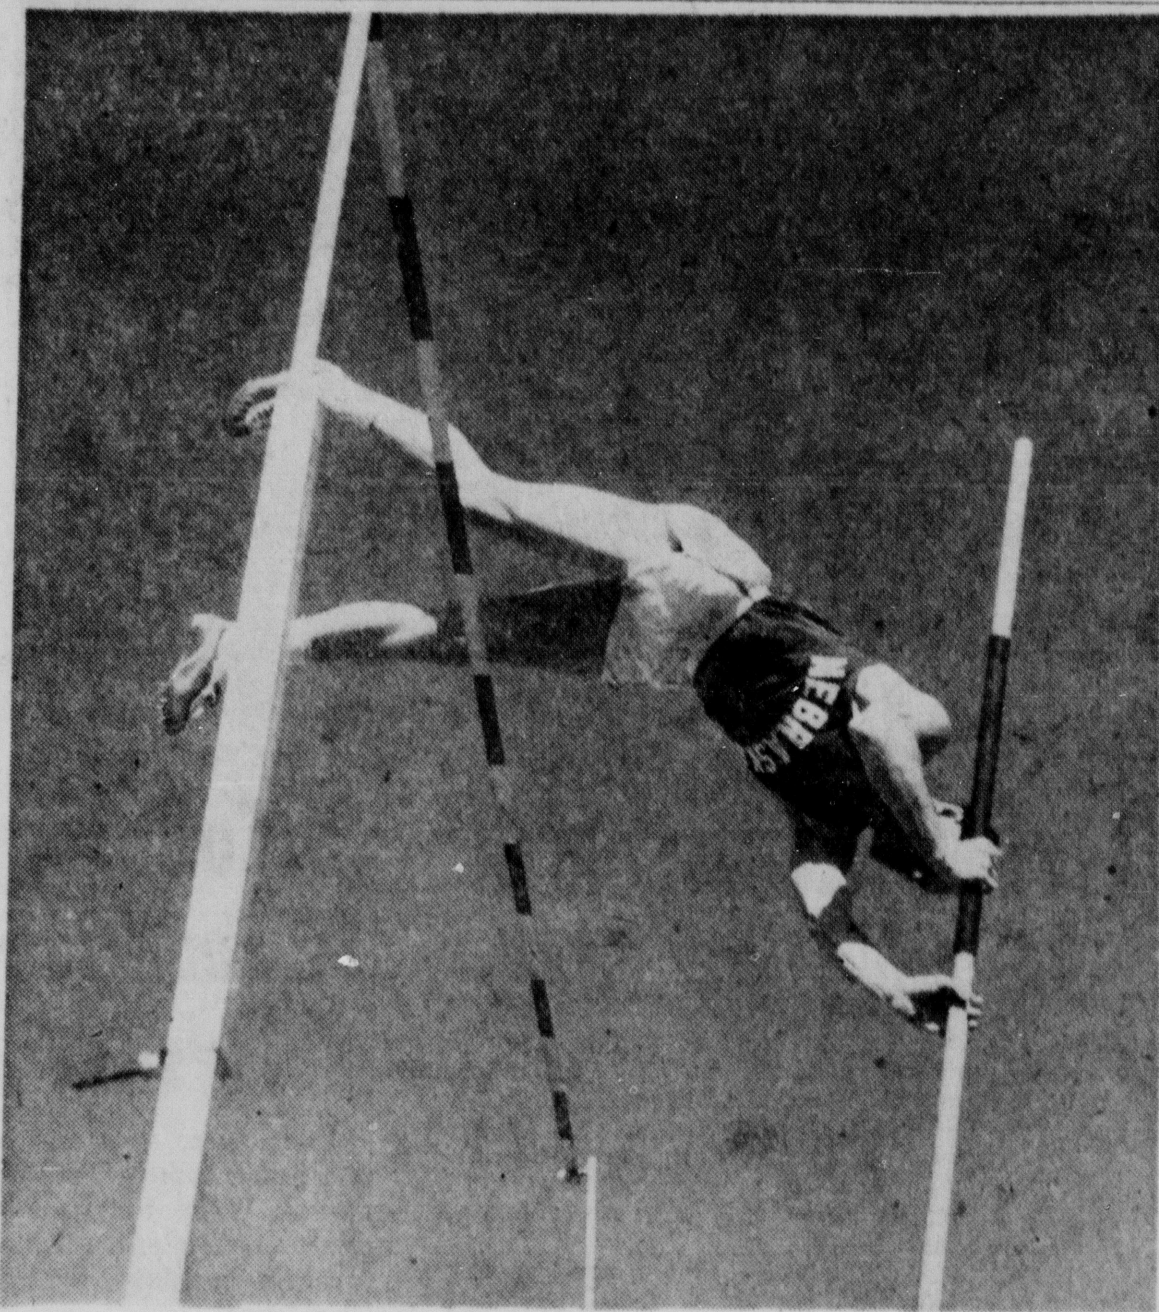

And Cozad's Larry Patterson turned in a 1:59.4 time in the Central 5 meet. Patterson will be running in Class B, and will not meet Komarek and Owens.

The fastest 880 on record is the 1:58.0 by Hobart Jones of Lincoln High in 1948. Two men beat 2 minutes that year, 2 in 1939, 2 in 1956, and 1 in 1928, but never before have there been 3 to better the 880 mark.

The trio share the track spotlight this week with Roger Savers of Omaha Central and Paul Nielsen of Western, both of whom took over the lead in their events.

Sayers, taking advantage of poor weather which hampered Scottsbluff's Ray Knaub, broke a 10.0 tie with Knaub in the 100 with a 9.9 clocking in the Inter-City. Nielsen ran 4:41 in the mile to beat out Omaha North's Tom Ash, who had led with 4:43.

Marvin Young of Albion and Dave Pokraka of Ord also beat Ash's time last week in the Central 10 meet, Young running 4:42.3 and Pokraka a

About-Face For Tony Kubek: Yank Enters Army Reserve

Milwaukee (P)—Tony Kubek of the New York Yankees, who belted out denials last month when a major said he was Army bound, was sworn into the Army Reserve corps for six months Monday by that same officer.

However, the brilliant, 22-year-old infielder-outfielder, is not obligated to report for at least 120 days. If he elects to take the full period of grace, he won't be in uniform until the early part of September—about three weeks before the end of the season.

Maj. Gerald Mulrine, commander of the South Side Army Reserve training center here in Kubek's home town, said Tony took his physical three weeks ago.

"He came in and took the oath Monday," said Mulrine. "We talked baseball for a while. That's all there was to it."

Asked if he knew why the American League's rookie of the year for 1957 denied two weeks ago that he had even so much as flirted with the idea of trading his pinstripe Yankee flannels for khaki, Mulrine replied:

"Tony didn't volunteer anything and I didn't question him."

Last April 17 Mulrine told newsmen Tony had completed all the preliminaries for entering the accelerated reserve program except for taking the oath. That little detail was to have taken place April 17, but young Kubek did not show up.

Mulrine said Tony can advise his unit commander the date he wants to begin his service stint.

"If he doesn't want to," the major added, "he cannot be called until his 120 days expire."

Efforts to reach Tony at his home here were unsuccessful. But his father, a former ball player, said Tony planned to fly back to New York.

"I don't know anything about his plans," said the elder Kubek. "If the major says he took his physical two weeks ago and was sworn in, the major should know."

Ken Russell of Omaha Central retained his 440 leadership, but had to better his time to do it. Hebron's Jim Killinger ran 51.7 to take the lead from Russell, but the Central flash turned in 51.0 in the Inter-City to regain the margin.

And Boys Town also chopped its mile relay time, running 3:28.5 in the Sioux City Relays. The Cowboys also moved into 2nd in the 880 relay in the same meet with 1:32.7.

Huskers Whip I-State, 91-44

... 2 Stadium, 7 Meet Marks Fall

By Ron Speer
Keith Gardner, who has been the big cog in Nebraska's return to track prominence, Monday afternoon ran his last flight of high hurdles on Husker cinders.

It was the slender Jamaican Jet's final chance to set a Stadium hurdles record—and he came through like a champion.

Despite knocking over the next-to-last hurdle Gardner was timed in :13.9 (one watch had him in :13.8) to shatter meet and Stadium records and set the pace for Nebraska's 91-44 dual meet victory over visiting Iowa State.

His time eclipsed the :14.0 mark set in the 1953 AAU meet by USC's Jack Davis, and bettered his own meet mark of :14.3 established in 1957.

The Huskers have another home meet slated—Michigan State here Saturday afternoon on All-Sports day—but Coach Frank Sevigne has indicated the Jet will run the 220 and 440-yard dashes.

Keith Young, NU hurdler who won the low hurdles and had a :14.3 tally while running second to Gardner in the highs Monday, will be counted on to win the hurdles against the Michigan State runners.

Seven meet marks were set during the dual affair, and another record was equaled.

The Nebraska 440-yard relay team started the action with a :42.1 clocking which bettered the stadium record set by the same runners last week. It was the first time the event has been held in Iowa State—Nebraska duals.

Mike (Silky Sullivan) Fleming staged another great finish to win the mile in record time, 4:21.5. He caught Husker Bill Melody in the last 25 yards after running fourth until the final curve.

Joe Mullins, NU soph who has been slowed by a heel injury, won the half in 1:55 to shatter another mark. Mullins was followed across the finish line by teammates Ken Ash and Knolly Barnes.

Phil Delavan, Iowa State's stocky shotputter, upped his own meet mark with a 54-3 toss. Ken Pollard, with only one competitor, bettered his meet pole vault mark with a 14-1 1/2 leap.

Nebraska javelin tosser Bill Lafleur chalked up a 202-1 heave to erase another meet standard.

Dick Jahr, only double winner of the day, ran a :09.9 century to tie the meet record. He came back to win the 220 in :21.9.

Top finish of the day was in the 440-yard dash, where Nebraska's Don House leaped across the tape to nip Iowa State's Al Meyer. House's time was :50.1.

Don Phillips NU sprinter-broad jumper, pulled a muscle while making the winning broad jump of 22-9, and may not compete Saturday.

COOL, COLORFUL CANVAS AWNINGS

Windows unshaded from the summer sun are open invitations to sweltering heat inside your house. Even with air conditioning you need to keep the sun heat outside. When hot sun is allowed to strike window glass, cooling equipment works harder—at greater expense—to get rid of heat. No wonder you see more and more colorful canvas awnings around town! These gay guardians against summer discomfort keep rooms 8 to 15 degrees cooler. And they cost less than half as much as rigid-type awnings. Let us give you a free estimate and show you our beautiful selection of canvas colors. Call 2-1977 or 2-3514.

Pirates Gain Tie For National Lead

San Francisco (AP)—The San Francisco Giants pummeled four pitchers for nine runs in a wild ninth inning Monday but the rally was a run short as the Pittsburgh Pirates won 11-10 and gained a share of the National League lead with Chicago.

The smallest crowd of the season, 5,506, saw the most thrilling game here since major league ball came to the west coast April 15.

The Pirates, getting their ninth victory in 11 games, scored three runs in their half of the ninth on four hits including a home run by Frank Thomas. Vern Law had clear sailing at that time and went into the bottom of the ninth with an 11-1 lead.

In the hectic Giants' ninth, the San Franciscans tied a National League record with three pinch hits in one inning. It had been done eight times before, but the last time, ironically, it was between the

REHABILITATION BEGINS FOR CAMPANELLA AT NEW SITE

New York (AP)—Roy Campanella, Los Angeles Dodger catcher who is paralyzed from the waist down, Monday was moved to the Rusk Institute of the New York University-Bellevue Medical Center.

Dr. Howard Rusk, in charge of the institute, said Campanella, critically injured in an auto accident, Jan. 28, soon would start a rehabilitation schedule.

Campanella has been under treatment at the Glen Cove Community Hospital since the accident.

"He can move his shoulders very well," said Dr. Rusk. "There is weak movement in his wrists but no muscle function below the arms. He has intermittent sensation down to his groins. He possesses a tremendous spirit."

Dr. Rusk said the rehabilitation program would include use of certain devices to help the patient's hand function such as shaving and feeding himself. Campanella will be fitted in a special neck brace and eventually may be placed in a wheel chair.

"Before World War II, such cases often were hopeless," said Dr. Rusk. "Since World War II, of 300 or 400 similar cases, 75 per cent have been able to get around in a wheel chair."

When questioned at a news conference, Dr. Rusk refused to give an opinion on whether Campanella would be able to walk again. "Right now it is impossible to tell," he said.

Dr. Robert Sengstaken, who performed the operation on Campanella after the accident, said the catcher was improving very slowly. "We would like to see him improve a little faster," he said. "There has been very little progress in the last 30 days."

Dr. Rusk examined Campanella Thursday. As a result of certain tests, he decided to move him.

Dennis Crosby Weds Showgirl Divorcee

Las Vegas, Nev. (AP)—Honey-mooners Dennis and Pat Crosby said Monday night they had learned belatedly that a Protestant clergyman married them.

They told newsmen that this knowledge, gained from newspapers, deeply disturbed them.

The bridegroom, 23-year-old son of Bing Crosby, was reared as a Catholic. His wife of one day, a non-Catholic, is a divorcee and the mother of a 6-year-old son. She is the former Pat Sheehan, 26, night club dancer.

The couple said they thought a justice of the peace performed the ceremony Sunday night in the Gretna Green wedding chapel.

In a joint statement issued at the Tropicana Hotel, the singer's son and the shapely showgirl declared:

"We feel terrible."

"We feel terrible about it. But what can we do? We're married, very much in love and that's that."

But the Rev. James A. Herndon, pastor of the Las Vegas Church of the Nazarene, said there should have been no doubt about his religious affiliation.

"They always make it clear at the chapel," the clergyman said.

The dancer, whom Bing once dated, had been young Crosby's steady girlfriend for several months. They first talked of marriage early this year.

The couple said last Feb. 3 they would be married in the same Las Vegas Catholic Church where widower Bing, 53, married actress Kathryn Grant, 23, last October.

But 2 days later the Rt. Rev. John J. Ryan, pastor of St. Anne's Church said:

"Approval Withheld
"I wish to make it clear that no such marriage can be approved by the Catholic Church unless, after a thorough investigation it is found that the former marriage of Miss Sheehan was not a valid Christian contract."

Bing, who was playing golf at Palm Springs, could not be reached for comment Monday.

Dennis is the first of the 4 Crosby boys to marry.

Coincidentally with the marriage, Dennis said he planned to follow Gary and Lindsay into a singing career. He said he soon will sign a recording contract with RCA.

Nixon Is Cheered, Jeered

... In Bolivia

La Paz, Bolivia (AP)—Vice President Nixon came to Bolivia Monday and received a welcoming shower of confetti mixed with pamphlets telling him to go home.

Crowds lined the streets on the route into La Paz from the airport to cheer Nixon and his wife on their fourth stop of an 8-nation tour of South America.

Nixon received a warm official welcome at the airport after his flight from Paraguay. On hand were Bolivia's Vice President Federico Alvarez Plata and U.S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal.

The motorcycle carrying Nixon and his goodwill party into the city was slowed several times by crowds who pushed out to shake his hand.

"Go Home"

The "Go Home, Nixon" pamphlets were signed by an organization calling itself the Anti-Imperialistic Patriotic Front.

Ex-Chiefs Of Staff Back Ike

... On Defense Revamp

Washington (AP)—Two former chairmen of the joint chiefs of staff Monday endorsed President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, the famed World War II commander, said the Eisenhower proposals would help reduce confusion and lower secrecy barriers between the armed forces.

Retired Adm. Arthur W. Radford, who also testified before the House Armed Services Committee, said he was "in full accord" with the President's objectives.

Radford, who retired as the joint chiefs' chairman last year, said in a prepared statement:

"Our basic national security structure must permit us to take timely advantage of important developments. Our armed services must continue to be the best in the world. Second best is not good enough in this business."

GM Appeals Directly To Its Workers

Detroit (AP)—General Motors Corp. has appealed directly to its 350,000 hourly rate employees to study "in the light of conditions today" the company's wage formula which was rejected by the United Auto Workers Union.

The company made public a letter from President Harlow H. Curtice to all employees covered by the GM-UAW contract, which expires midnight May 29.

Curtice told GM employees: "The big problem now is to restore confidence and the people's willingness to buy the products we make. I am firmly convinced that prompt agreement on the sound basis we have proposed would have a most favorable effect on public confidence."

Civil Rights Body

Key Job Goes To Tiffany

... Ready To Roll

Washington (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee voted 10-4 Monday to approve Gordon M. Tiffany for the key job of staff director of the new Civil Rights Commission. The committee acted after thinking it over for 2 months and 2 weeks.

This removed the last big barrier to full operation of the commission.

The commission was created last summer by the first civil rights law since Reconstruction Days, mainly to investigate complaints that Southern Negroes were being deprived of their voting rights.

President Eisenhower's nomination of Tiffany, a New Hampshire lawyer, has been before the judiciary committee since Feb. 20. The committee is headed by Sen. Eastland (D-Miss), an opponent of civil rights legislation.

The commission chairman, Dr. John A. Hannah, said April 26 that the committee had handcuffed the commission by its delay in acting on the Tiffany nomination.

SUMMIT OFFENSIVE CONTINUES

... Dulles Warns NATO

Copenhagen, Denmark (AP)—NATO foreign ministers organized their own diplomatic offensive Monday for a summit conference. Secretary of State Dulles cautioned against falling into Russian-laid traps on the road.

The ministers of the 15 North Atlantic Treaty Nations—confident now in their own ability to keep in step—heard British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd expound the view that the Russians are losing their enthusiasm for a top-level meeting.

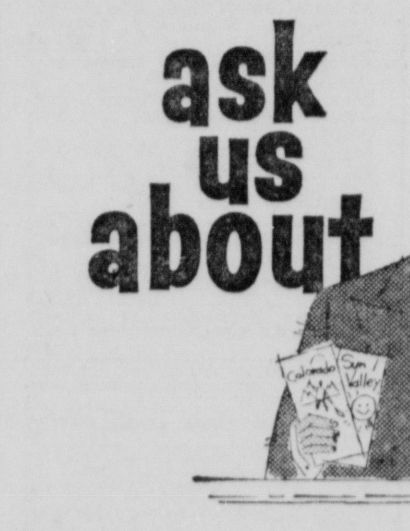

Lloyd suggested the world public was beginning to see through Kremlin diplomatic ruses.

Ministers Confident

In a confident mood, the NATO ministers made it clear they intended to keep the Russians on the defensive by working hard for summit talks—the kind that would have real meaning.

Underlining this, West Germany's Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano said his government would insist that any summit conference discuss German reunification—the most elusive topic of all in world diplomacy.

FAMILY PLAN FARES

Here's an example of how one family would save travel dollars by taking advantage of our Family Plan Fares instead of driving long, tire-some miles.

For a round trip, Dad would pay the full round-trip rail fare.

Mom would pay just the one-way rail fare for the round trip. So would daughter, under 22 years.

Junior, under 12 years, would pay only one-half of the one-way fare for the round trip.

So—when you figure it out—the family of four could make the round

Vote Before Strike Not Mandatory—High Court

Washington (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled 5-4 Monday it is unlawful for an employer to insist on a vote-before-you-strike agreement as a condition to contract bargaining with a labor union.

The ruling does not impair validity of "no strike" agreements between employers and labor unions.

It simply means that an employer cannot take an adamant position against signing any labor contract unless it contains a provision banning strikes without a prior secret ballot on the company's last offer. To do so, the majority said, constitutes an unfair labor practice under the Taft-Hartley act.

On another phase of Taft-Hartley, the court agreed unanimously that an employer cannot demand that a local union be substituted as bargaining representative for its parent international union which had been certified for this purpose by the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB).

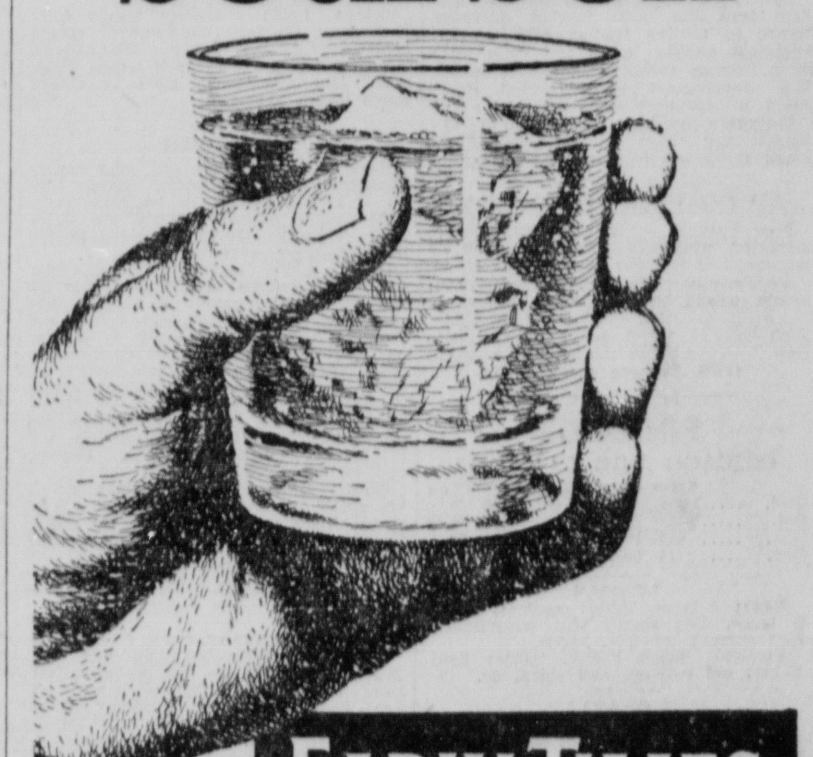

Justice Burton, author of the main opinion, said both the provisions were beyond the scope of mandatory collective bargaining as defined by Taft-Hartley.

Both rulings were against the Wooster (Ohio) division of Borg-Warner Corp. They upheld the NLRB which called Borg-Warner's insistence on

Stocks Reach New '58 High

New York (AP) — Selective strength featured an uneven stock market Monday and the statistics had enough of an upside edge to put the market at another new high for 1958.

Turnover of 2,670,000 shares made it a fairly active day and compared with 2,290,000 on Friday.

The market finished last week at the latest of a string of new highs for the year so far, and upward nudged the new 1958 summ.

Leading stocks generally showed changes within a point range but there were some advances in the 30 or so among secondary issues. Gainers on the most active list were dominated by lower-priced issues.

The market was a bit higher at the opening. As turnover slackened prices became mixed. They remained that way until late afternoon when the balance began to tilt toward the higher end.

American Motors, Lorillard, Haver Industries and Getty Oil were among the favorites.

Market background included another boost in steel industry output figures, upward of higher construction output and more demand for steel due to increased building activity.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 40 cents to $168.90, which, as on Friday, put the average at its highest since Sept. 19, 1947, when it stood at $168.90.

The 30 stocks, the rails 30 cents and the utilities 20 cents, all components touching highs.

Of 1,182 issues traded, gainers totaled 580 and losers 702. There were 129 new highs for the year and 6 new lows.

Thirteen of the 15 most active stocks rose 2 and 2 fell.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 660,000 shares compared with 110,000 Friday.

Tax reductions requested by railroads appearing before the State Board of Equalization and Assessment would "upset the whole tax system

Indonesian Rebels Won't Give Up Fight

Singapore (AP) — The Indonesian rebels, beaten down in central Sumatra, said their planes based in North Celebes will bomb key Indonesian cities in continuing the fight. A rebel broadcast said foreign vessels must not go to any ports in Java or east Indonesia, and may be sunk if they do.
The radio, broadcasting from an undisclosed location, said the Javanese cities of Jakarta, Surabaya, Bandung and Semarang should expect air attacks. The people of Makassar, capital of South Celebes, were warned to stay away from military targets.
A radio statement by rebel Interior Minister Dahlan Djambek said the rebels will fight on with 3 principles at stake: Freedom, belief in God, and the welfare of the Menangkabau people. Leaders of Menangkabau in central Sumatra were among the first to rebel against the central government.

NU BOOKLET ON KELLOGG GRANT IS PREPARED

The University of Nebraska announced it has prepared a 19-page booklet as part of its preparations to raise $1,142,000 in matching funds to make available the $1,856,000 W. K. Kellogg Foundation grant for a continuing education center.
Estimated construction cost of the center is $2,642,000.
The booklet says that "admittedly, the university is counting very heavily upon gifts to be made through the University of Nebraska Foundation and upon direct contributions."
The university has until December to match the Kellogg grant.

Gold Bars Worth $35,000 Stolen From Messenger

Chicago (INS) — Two gold bars, worth a total of $35,000, were reported stolen Monday from a messenger for a Chicago gold alloy company.
Hans P. Malitz, 50, a driver for Handy & Harman Co., refiners and manufacturers of gold alloys, told police:
He went to a branch Post Office and picked up the bars. Each weighed 35 pounds and was valued at $17,500.
Malitz put the bars in the trunk of his parked car and returned to the Post Office for "just a minute." As he left the Post Office, he said he saw his car being driven away.
The driver, Malitz reported, was about 20 years old, was wearing glasses, and had dark wavy hair.
Malitz' car was found abandoned late in an alley. Police said the gold bars were gone.

in Nebraska." Gov. Victor Anderson said Monday.
Representatives of 6 railroads told the Board that their operating costs are going up and their revenue is going down and they believe they are over-assessed.
State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington estimated the average tax reduction requested by the railroads at 30%.

The governor said if such a tax reduction were granted, it would mean "raising every other taxpayer in Nebraska."
"One Of The Fairest"
"I don't believe anybody should be unfairly assessed," the governor commented, "and I don't believe in sticking the railroads, but I think Nebraska has one of the fairest railroad assessments in the nation."

Referring to a hearing the railroads had before Sen. Terry Carpenter's Tax Investigating Committee earlier this year when the Scottsbluff senator said the railroads were over-assessed, Gov. Anderson said, "You wouldn't be in here today if it hadn't been for Terry Carpenter."

Railroad representatives asked the Board to change its formula for determining their taxable value. They want it based chiefly on the railroads' earning power.

While the railroads could not agree at what per cent of earning power they should be assessed, they did express uniform objection to using total investment as a determining factor.

Commenting on the request that they be taxed on the basis of earning power, Gov. Anderson told the railroads that farmers' incomes are down "but they get no reduction in taxes."

"If we had been unfair you would have been in the Supreme Court," he commented.

Burlington Railroad Counsel Jay Weingarten said, "You've been fairer than other states."

The Burlington attorney continued, however, that it is a matter of "getting our property to where it ought to be. We think we are over-assessed."

Other railroads appearing before the Board included Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Illinois Central, Rock Island, and Chicago & North-western.

Herrington said it will be "several weeks" before the Board determines the assessment for the railroads.

Arming Protested

Copenhagen, Denmark (AP) — Twelve hundred Danes led by 6 black-hooded men carrying a black coffin staged a protest march against the arming of West German soldiers with atomic weapons.

The coffin, labeled "humanity," was carried into Copenhagen's Town Hall Square in a demonstration aimed at the current meeting here of NATO's foreign ministers.
